BE IT RESOLVED, that the 197th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania continues the practice of suspending Diocesan Canons 7.2, 7.3, 7.4, which are concerned with assessments for the Support of the Episcopate and for Convention and Diocesan expense.

Note: "Note 1," p. 102, Journal, 192nd Annual Convention:
"The 187th Diocesan Convention on October 3, 1970 passed the following resolution which has been reaffirmed at each successive Diocesan Convention:

"RESOLVED, that Diocesan Convention, at its meeting held October 2 and 3, 1970, accepts and approves the elimination for budgetary purposes of the Assessment on each parish and mission and the combining of the Assessment and Missionary budget into a single budget. (This support of the office of the Bishop is and must be a first priority and obligation under this method of developing the budget.)"

Mr. Harrison presented the following resolution which was adopted:

R-9 C: Proposed Diocesan Program-Budget for 1981.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 197th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania authorizes that the following procedures be employed by Diocesan Council for reviewing the income and expenditures called for in the 1981 Diocesan Program-Budget:

(1) The receipt of the final pledge from each congregation by December 31, 1980; but no later than January 31, 1981.

(2) The amendment of the 1981 Diocesan Program-Budget by Diocesan Council at any time during 1981 if the total income differs significantly from the total anticipated in the 1981 Diocesan Program-Budget, as adopted by Diocesan Convention.

Note: The above procedures have been adopted annually by Diocesan Convention since the 187th Diocesan Convention, October 1970.

Donald Simpson, Vice-Chair of the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved the following resolution:

R-1-I:

WHEREAS the salary ranges for the six responsibility levels for clergy positions have been in effect since January 1, 1980, and

WHEREAS these salary ranges no longer reflect adequate compensation for clergy in these positions, particularly in view of rapidly expanding inflation;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that beginning January 1, 1981, the salary ranges for full-time clergy (exclusive of housing and utility allowance) be raised approximately 9% as follows:

Responsibility Level of Position (See Note 1)	Current Minimum Cash Salary	New Minimum Salary 1-1-81	New Midpoints	New Maximum Salary 1-1-81
A	$ 9,110	$ 9,930	$13,245	$16,560
B	11,070	12,065	16,087	20,110
C	12,590	13,725	18,335	22,945
D	13,560	14,780	19,690	24,600
E	16,000	17,440	23,265	29,090
F	18,230	19,870	26,492	33,115

R-1-II:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 197th Diocesan Convention reaffirms these resolutions adopted by the 196th Diocesan Convention:

A. BE IT RESOLVED that compensation for clergy should normally be within the appropriate salary range — not at the minimum — and, in general, progress through the range should be determined by performance evaluation, with the salary goal for a thoroughly competent incumbent at the range midpoint, or above.

B. BE IT RESOLVED that where congregations do not provide church-owned housing and paid utilities that a housing allowance be paid in lieu thereof that will enable the cleric to provide his own adequate and satisfactory housing (including utilities) in the community, this housing allowance being in addition to the cash salary.

R-1-III:

RESOLVED that the Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment for 1981 be $15,000 (same as 1980 assessment).

Note #1: The job responsibility levels are described, as follows:

Job Responsibility Level	Typical Descriptions
F	These positions are those of very heavy responsibility, requiring considerable experience and mastery of several diverse and not necessarily related disciplines. Direction and training of other clergy are often required. Senior Diocesan officials and Rectors of very large, diverse parishes are typically at this responsibility level.
E	These positions are very complex and require seasoned competence in several areas; theological, pastoral and managerial. Typical of this level is the rectorship of parishes above average in size and complexity of program, or leadership of an institution whose program — regardless of the numbers of people or dollars involved — is on the creative edge of mission.
D	These are positions of some complexity and responsibility requiring professional competence and independence on the part of a clergyperson. The "typical parish rectorship" is at this level. Of the same level of responsibility although very different in some of the skills required, are also such positions as the Senior Assistant Minister in a parish whose Rectorship is a Level E or F, the Vicar of a rapidly expanding mission, the Chaplain in a small hospital.
C	Positions at this level are of modest complexity, with many routine demands. Often the chief challenges here are those of institutional maintenance. The image of the Vicarship of a small village parish comes to mind as a typical though not exclusive example of this responsibility level.
B	This is the professional entry level, the "classical curacy" or other position in which responsibilities are fairly limited and supervision is close.
A	This is the "traditional internship" or first year in the diaconate undergoing practical training under close supervision.

Note #2: Adherence to minimum salary standards will be determined from compensation data reported to the Church Pension Fund and from parochial reports.

A substitute resolution moved by the Very Rev. Robert Zimmerman was defeated. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Simpson moved the following resolution, which was adopted.

R-8: Clergy Travel Expense

RESOLVED that this Diocesan Convention directs congregations to reimburse their clergy for all business related travel expenses, including both public transportation and automobile expenses, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that beginning January 1, 1981 where an automobile allowance is paid that this allowance be no less than (1) the Internal Revenue Service standard, now $.20 per mile for the first 15,000 miles, plus reimbursement of tolls and parking fees, or (2) a budgeted monthly allowance designed to cover the actual cost of automobile operation.

REA-1:

CANON 14

Of Parishes Without a Rector
[Of Vacant Parishes]

(DELETE MATTER IN BRACKETS AND ADD MATTER UNDERLINED)

SEC. 14.1 Whenever it becomes known to a Vestry that [a vacancy of the office of Rector shall occur] the Rector has vacated the office of Rector or has given notice that he will vacate the office of Rector, it shall be the duty of the Church Wardens or other proper officers forthwith to give to the Bishop the notice required by the Canons of the Episcopal Church [Canon of the General Convention in that behalf], and otherwise informed to proceed without delay as thereby directed. [Within 15 days after being informed of such vacancy, the] The Bishop or his deputy shall meet with the Vestry to consider the requirements of the [vacant position] office of Rector. [Not longer than 30 days thereafter, the Bishop shall submit three nominations for the vacancy to be considered in addition to such other names as may come before the Vestry. Such of the Bishop's nominees as are not accepted shall be reported to the Bishop with reasons for the same (and if required by him such reasons shall be stated in writing) within 45 days of the nomination by the Bishop, and additional assistance requested with respect to the vacancy if necessary.]

SEC. 14.2 If the office to be filled serves only one corporate congregation, and is to be compensated at or above the minimum level set in the Canons, then within 120 days or such longer period as may be agreed upon by the Bishop and Vestry, the Bishop shall submit three nominations for the office of Rector to be considered in addition to such other names as may come before the Vestry. Such of the Bishop's nominees as are not accepted shall be reported to the Bishop with reasons for the same (and, if required by him, such reasons shall be stated in writing) within 45 days or a longer period as mutually agreed upon by the Bishop and the Vestry, and additional assistance shall be requested with respect to filling the office of Rector if necessary.

SEC. 14.3 If the office to be filled serves two or more corporate bodies, or is to be compensated at less than the minimum level in the Canons, then the terms of compensation and duties must be submitted to the Bishop for his approval, and no person may be elected to the office without the Bishop's approval. All canonical perquisites and responsibilities of a parish will apply, with the exceptions that:

a. tenure in the office shall be at the pleasure of the Bishop

b. expenditures of any capital or endowment fund belonging to the Parish can only be made with the full approval and consent of the Bishop.

If at any time after the office has been filled under the limitations of this section the Bishop receives evidence that these limitations no longer apply, then, if the Bishop approves, the Vestry may proceed with the election of a Rector as outlined in the preceding sections of this Canon, and restrictions a. and b. of this section shall be lifted.

[SEC. 14.2] SEC. 14.4 Every [such vacant] Parish without a Rector shall be and remain under the special supervision of the Bishop until a Rector is duly chosen and installed. The Bishop may, in his discretion, delegate all or part of these special supervisory functions to the Dean of the Deanery in which the [vacant] Parish is found. [During such vacancy it] It shall be the duty of the Vestry of such Parish to make provisions for duly maintaining Divine Worship in the Church, and for the pastoral care of the Parish. And if in any such case the Vestry fails so to do, the Bishop may, in his discretion, appoint a Clergyman to be Minister-in-Charge of said Parish until a Rector shall be duly elected and installed, such Minister-in-Charge to be subject to the direction and control of the Bishop, and to be removable by him at pleasure.

[SEC. 14.3] SEC. 14.5 It shall be the duty of the Vestry of [such] a Parish without a Rector to make due provision out of the revenues of the Parish for the salary of the Minister-in-Charge and for the maintenance of Divine Worship in the Church.

Geoffrey Stengel, Esq., Executive Vice-President of the Church Foundation, gave his report. It is attached as Appendix #12.

Edward R. Carpenter, Chair of the Committee on Incorporation, gave his report, and moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

1. Respecting Formal Amendments to Articles of Incorporation Substantially in the Form Approved by Convention

A proposed restatement of Articles of Incorporation of CHRIST CHURCH, Ridley Park, was submitted to your Committee. Since the proposed restatement was substantially in the form approved by Convention in 1969, the Committee, in accordance with the amendment to Canon 1, section 1.4.1, as amended by the 1978 Convention, approved the amendment and authorized the filing of the same with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In accordance with Canon 1, section 1.4.1, as amended, the Committee's action is reported herewith.

2. Respecting Formal Amendments to Articles of Incorporation Requiring Approval by Convention

The Committee on Incorporation has considered the application of the Church of the Redemption, Southhampton for approval of amendments to its Articles of Incorporation. The proposed amendment is in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation, except for Article FIFTH, Section 3, which would read as follows:

"There shall be an accounting Warden chosen from among the Vestry Persons, a Treasurer, a Secretary or Clerk and such other offices as may be prescribed by the by-laws. In addition the Rector shall select from among the members of the corporation a Rector's Warden to serve at his discretion, for a term of not more than three (3) years; the Rector's Warden thus appointed shall not be eligible for reappointment for a period of one year. During the period of (his) (her) appointment, (he) (she) shall be a voting member of the Vestry when other than an elected Vestry Person.

At such time as there may be no Rector the Vestry shall choose the Rector's Warden from among its members."

The Committee believes that the foregoing provision is not prohibited by either the National or the Diocesan Canons and therefore offers the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the proposed amendments to the Articles of Incorporation of CHURCH OF THE REDEMPTION, Southhampton be approved and that permission be given either to file the same with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or to apply to the proper Court for approval thereof.

WHEREAS the existence of substandard housing for poor and in particular, the elderly poor is one of the most widespread problems in urban areas, inflicting hardships on thousands of people, and

WHEREAS the Diocese of Pennsylvania has already begun to participate actively in attempting to alleviate this problem and make tangible its commitment to urban ministry, and

WHEREAS the Bishop's Task Force on Housing has been actively at work meeting with community groups involved with creative solutions to housing problems, and

WHEREAS in May, 1980, the Bishop and the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania authorized an interest free loan of $250,000 from a Diocesan endowment fund through the Bishop's Task Force on Housing to the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation to create a revolving fund for the purpose of housing renovation, and

WHEREAS this money and the work of the Bishop's Task Force on Housing has already renovated a number of homes for the poor and the elderly poor;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that this 197th Diocesan Convention urges each congregation to follow the lead of the Bishop and the Standing Committee in working toward creative solutions to the problem of housing in our urban areas by lending money from endowment funds, or from any other available funds, through the Bishop's Task Force on Housing to the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation for the purpose of housing improvement in our urban areas.

A motion to reverse the two resolutions presented by Mr. Charles Day was adopted.

The following resolution, moved by Mr. Day and amended by the Rev. David L. Stokes, was adopted:

R-6: Resolution on the MX Missle System

WHEREAS the proposed MX system would represent a destabilizing, rather than a stabilizing element in the U.S.-Soviet, U.S.-China, and other relations, bringing the possibility of this or another nation initiating a preemptive nuclear strike, and

WHEREAS the MX system effectively turns a large part of the Western United States into a target for a saturation bombing from other nations' nuclear missiles, raising not only the threat of devastation of that part of the country, but unimaginable side effects to the remainder of the nation, and

WHEREAS the MX system represents a cost commitment that can only be met by taking from our national goals of adequate food, shelter, health, education, and stable economic climate for all Americans, and our obligation to less fortunate nations, and

WHEREAS two Episcopal Bishops, those of Utah and Nevada, have pointed out that the MX weapon development affects not only their states, but that it also affects every Episcopal diocese in the Country, and

WHEREAS the Executive Council, at its June, 1980, meeting, acted to assure the Bishops of Utah and Nevada of its support for their concern, including their request to take steps to help Church people engage in the study of both general disarmament issues and the MX system in particular, and to work to make the Church's attitudes known to Congress, and

WHEREAS our call as Christians is a call to peaceful means for resolution of conflicts and the de-escalation of the development of offensive nuclear weapons, recalling the words of our Lord "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the Sons of God", now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that, based on the information available to date, this Convention opposes the establishment of the MX system and be it further

RESOLVED, that this Convention calls upon the Government to withold MX funding unless or until the system can be proven to have the criteria of affordability, survivability, consistency with SALT results, environmental soundness, and a positive contribution to arms control objectives which the President has claimed for it, and be it further

RESOLVED, that this Convention recommends to the Presiding Bishop that the Executive Council take steps to help Church people to engage in the study of both general disarmament issues and nuclear disarmament in particular, and to work to make the Church's attitudes known to Congress, and be it further

RESOLVED, that this Convention calls for each parish to undertake the study of the threat of nuclear holocaust and the biblical issues raised thereby, and the appropriate response of individuals and parishes to this ultimate threat.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention in no way denigrates or denounces any Christian person who after the study of God's holy word and careful prayer must give his or her support to a policy of nuclear armament as a means to peace.

A resolution concerning Atlantic Life Community and Manufacture of Nuclear Weapons was moved by Mr. Day and defeated.

Mrs. Virginia Smith, Chair of the Diocesan Hunger Committee, gave her report and introduced Mr. David Crean who spoke to the Convention. His report is attached as Appendix # 29.

WHEREAS this 197th Diocesan Convention recognizes and appreciates the work put in by a number of people in developing a Long Range Plan for the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and

WHEREAS Convention recognizes that Diocesan Council's adoption of the Plan on March 15, 1980 provides the basis for the Plan's implementation;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that Diocesan Convention directs each vestry in the Diocese to study the Plan by March 1, 1981 and, further, to convey all opinions and suggestions regarding the Plan's implementation to Diocesan Council by March 15, 1981.

VENTURE IN MISSION ANNUAL REPORT

October, 1980

A young urban family is able to move out of crowded housing that often lacks heating and basic amenities into a newly rehabilitated home. An elderly person confined to a nursing home enjoys the care and concern of a weekly visitor. Tutoring and cultural activites give direction and meaning to the lives of children and young people.

These are brief examples of support and help made possible through Venture In Mission. The ongoing program enables Episcopalians to reach out to both communicants and the community through projects identified with needs in this diocese and the National Church.

$3,467,168.00 has been pledged to date. Distribution of funds to projects began in January, 1980 and allocations will continue quarterly over the three to five-year period of Venture funding. Also, during each quarter, an equal allocation will be made to the National program honoring the Diocesan pledge to give one-half of funds raised in the Diocese of Pennsylvania to the National missionary endeavor.

The Venture Executive Committee feels keenly its responsibility to bring both credibility and accountability for the program to the diocese and all who so generously supported it. At six-month intervals, the Executive Committee receives a report from each project which includes a financial statement and an account of its operations and accomplishments. An Evaluator whose interest and knowledge uniquely qualifies him/her to tread the fine line between advocate and adversary oversees each project, assuring a fair and accurate assessment. The principle criterion is whether the project is meeting the goals and objectives set forth in the original proposal and approved at the outset by a special committee. Evaluators too, submit a report every six months and then meet as a group to discuss each project's progress. From this come their recommendations for funding during the ensuing six months. If the recommendation is for deletion, the Executive Committee must approve and take it to Diocesan Council for action.

Two projects were deleted from the original case of twenty-four when, due to changed circumstances, each was unable to develop its project as originally proposed. No new projects are being considered because sufficient moneys have not been raised to fund the case of twenty-four projects at one hundred percent of their asking.

One hundred and forty-four parishes have participated in the campaign with more coming on board as circumstances permit. Some parishes are going back for a second fund-raising effort, while others are targeting such efforts toward a specific project so that, in the case of the latter, its full potential for service can be realized. The additional funding needs of specific diocesan projects have been identified and communicated to all parishes for their consideration. Our goal is to give every parishioner the opportunity to participate in this unique effort.

Following the organization of the Episcopal Urban Caucus in February, 1980, Bishop Mosley requested the Venture Executive Committee to consider recommending that ten percent of the Diocesan pledge to the National Venture program be designated to the Caucus. After considerable discussion and study by both the Executive Committee and Diocesan Council, the following resolution was passed by Council in June:

WHEREAS the Diocese of Pennsylvania is strongly committed to the support of urban mission and ministry, and

WHEREAS the Episcopal Urban Caucus, working in collaboration with existing church structures, stands ready to provide fresh leadership to the thrust of the Episcopal Church toward effective mission and ministry to the cities, and

WHEREAS by action of Executive Council the Episcopal Urban Caucus Development Program (Venture Project #369-13) has been authorized to receive Venture funding under the heading of "Ministry and Mission in Changing Urban Communities";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that 10 percent (presently projected as $150,000) of Pennsylvania's Venture funds already committed to the National Venture be designated to Venture Project #369-13, in support of the Episcopal Urban Caucus Development Program.

"What's the Latest" in Venture is discussed in a new question and answer pamphlet that has been distributed to all congregations. Monthly updates continue to go to rectors and Venture Chairmen, and in each Diocesan News there is an article about one of the projects. A film-strip, graphically depicting the work of the projects, will have its initial showing at Diocesan Convention. It will then be available to all parishes and deaneries. In addition to the above efforts to keep all in the diocese informed, speakers are available to bring a firsthand report to any group. If you have not done so, make plans to designate a Venture Sunday in your parish!

APPENDIX #9

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

197th ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

October 24/25, 1980

THE RT. REV. LYMAN C. OGILBY

THE QUEER ABNORMAL EEL — CHRIST'S MINISTER

Once upon a time, the animals decided they must do something heroic to meet the problems of a "new world", so they organized a school. They adopted an activity curriculum consisting of running, climbing, swimming, and flying. To make it easier to administer, all the animals took all the same subjects.

The duck was excellent in swimming, better in fact than his instructor. He made passing grades in flying, but he was very poor in running. Since he was slow in running, he had to stay after school and drop swimming to practice running. This was kept up until his web feet were badly worn, and he was only average in swimming. But average was acceptable in school, so nobody worried about that except the duck.

The rabbit started at the top of his class in running, but had a nervous breakdown because of so much makeup work in swimming.

The squirrel was excellent in climbing until he developed frustration in the flying class where his teacher made him start from the ground up instead of from the treetop down. He also develop charlie horses from overexertion, and then got "C" in climbing and "D" in running.

The eagle was a problem child and was disciplined severely. In the climbing class he beat all others to the top of the tree, but insisted on using his own way to get there.

At the end of the year, the queer abnormal eel that could swim exceedingly well and also run, climb, and fly a little had the highest average, and was valedictorian.

The prairie dogs stayed out of school and fought the tax levy because the administration would not add digging and burrowing to the curriculum. They apprenticed their children to a badger and later joined the groundhogs and gophers to start a successful private school.

What does this fable tell us?

The "Fable of the Animal School" is an animated illustration of a typical organization's lack of responsiveness and insensitivity to the needs and aspirations as well as the gifts, talents, and experiences of the individuals it is intended to serve. The problem is classic and imbedded in human organization: the tension between an organization's purpose and goals and of the goals of the individuals who are involved in the organization.

This tension between organizational needs and individual needs is in every organization at all times. Judas Iscariot left the community of disciples because his individual perceptions of the purpose of the organization were at such variance with his own ideas as to what its purposes should be that he could not tolerate the tension. In the church the struggle between organizational needs and individual needs takes on its own particular character. We, Christ's ministers, are an organization of strange abnormal eels in today's world — we have to be able to swim, run, climb and fly a little and be faithful in carrying out our personal and corporate ministry.

This annual convention is the Diocese of Pennsylvania organized. Convention is the organizing of 88,000 baptized individuals who regularly congregate at 171 locations throughout the five counties of southeastern Pennsylvania. We shall not raise the question tonight: what is the best way to organize 88,000 Christians, who compose this diocese of the Episcopal Church, into a corporate body. We merely underscore the truth that there will always be tension between the organization and individuals.

In our prayer and our Bible readings a few minutes ago, we heard these words:

". . . for all members of your holy Church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and devoutly serve you. . . ."

Collect for all Christians in their vocation.

+ + + + + + + + +

". . . for all the earth is mine, and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation . . ."

Exodus 19:6

+ + + + + + + + +

"As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: . . . in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ."

1 Peter 4:10-11

+ + + + + + + + +

". . . If any man would come after me, let him deny himself . . . and follow me . . ."

Matthew 16:24

Individuals, each of us, with our differences, no two of us alike in every respect; yet each one of us, a person, created in the image of God, is potentially capable of responding to Him and to one another. Each one of us has received a gift because of God's varied grace; and each is called to a ministry of stewardship in order that the God of grace may be glorified. God calls each of us by name into His discipleship. Our baptismal covenant, which is now so precisely set forth in the Book of Common Prayer, is clear and concise; the verbs are compelling: believe, continue, persevere, proclaim, seek, serve, strive.

Our history and our tradition reaching back into the Hebrew Scriptures shows us that this covenant into which we have been baptized has been given by God to His people, a group, a community, an organization. For us in this time and in this place the organization is this convention, our corporate response to the good news of and who is God in Jesus Christ and His ministry in the world today.

And this leads us to say a word about our current political scene with our national, state, and local elections for political office just ten days away. The House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church, with its pastoral letter of October 8th, spoke directly to two concerns: apathy, political withdrawal by Christians, and — just the opposite extreme — aggressive religious partisanship in the political arena, which has been identified as the Moral Majority. I do commend this letter to you all. Furthermore, this convention should be concerned about issues, not personalities — issues of equity and justice, of stability and peace, of prosperity and employment. These matters are what will decide our future. American democracy imposes an ethical obligation on the Christian, that of responsible participation in the enterprise of government. Several significant resolutions are coming to this convention which speak to these issues; such as the manufacturing of nuclear weapons and the MX system. These are appropriate resolutions and call for favorable response.

Two years ago, our 195th annual convention resolved to commit, insofar as it is within its power, the people of this diocese to participate actively and fully in our Venture in Mission and its fund raising campaign. I have been extremely gratified and encouraged by the commitment and dedication, enthusiasm and competence, of so many people — clergy and laity — and so many congregations throughout the diocese to this missionary calling these past two years. Although much good and courageous work has already been accomplished in the name and love of Jesus Christ and His mission to the world, near and far, city and suburb, I am not completely satisfied because there are still people and congregations in our diocese who as yet have not experienced the joy of our Venture commitment. I hope they soon will.

As we here in Pennsylvania have worked out this expression and manifestation of Christ's word and work in the world, there is a direct correspondence between those people and congregations who are committed to Venture in Mission and those people and congregations who are giving themselves in servanthood and obedience to the God of grace and glory and who are renewed for Christ's mission in the world. Several resolutions are coming to this convention from our Venture in Mission experience pertaining to housing in urban areas and diocesan long range planning. Again, I urge favorable action on the content of these resolutions.

This convention will also consider a proposal for revision of our diocesan Canon 14 which will regularize the appointment of clergy to so-called part-time parochial situations where it does not seem necessary to put the congregation through the process leading to aided parish status. Under this revision, the Bishop will still be the final authority, but the responsibility for choice of clergy will by shared by the governing body of the congregation. This canonical revision will be helpful. As we endeavour to express and extend Christian ministry in the Black and Hispanic communities of this diocese, I — in concert with the Church House staff and the Commission on Ministry — am working through approaches to the use of Title III, Canon 8, of the national canons. This canon encourages the selection of indigenous ministers for specialized kinds of communities. Certain inner-city Black and Hispanic communities clearly need this kind of ordained minister. We have several people in various stages of the process leading toward projected ordination under this canonical provision.

We come back to the Animal School. It is not easy, and it is certainly not popular, to be a strange abnormal eel in today's world — one who can swim, and run, climb, and fly a little; one who is faithful in carrying out personal and corporate ministry. This ministry is the ministry into which we were baptized: to represent Christ and His Church; to bear witness to Him wherever we may be; and, according to the gifts given us, to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world; and to take our place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church. Amen.

APPENDIX #10

Bishop Ogilby, Bishop Mosley, Delegates to Convention and Guests

Financial statements, including a Comparative Balance Sheet as of September 30, 1980 and 1979, a Comparative Income Statement for the first nine (9) months of 1980 and 1979 and a Projected Income Statement for the year 1980, are included with this report. I suggest you review them at your leisure. If you have any questions, John Rettew or I will be happy to answer them.

The 1980 Budget was approved with a deficit of $30,000. This deficit was subsequently revised downward to $20,000. Bearing any unforeseen turn of events, we do not anticipate any increase in the deficit. To the contrary, we have every reason to believe that the deficit will be further reduced or eliminated by year-end.

We were directed by this body last year to review the Guidelines procedure for 1981. The review was performed and the decision to continue the Guidelines in their present form for 1981 was approved by the Committee on Finance and Property and by the Bishop. The conclusion reached in the review of the Guidelines are very well expressed by the Bishop in his cover letter to the 1981 Guidelines which we submitted to the congregations early in September. A copy of that cover letter is included on this report.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILIP C. HOWSE
Treasurer

Dear Friends:

The Guidelines for congregational giving for 1981 are enclosed.

In response to instructions from the 1979 Diocesan Convention, the Finance and Property Committee has carefully and thoroughly reviewed the formula by which the Guidelines are determined. I have also considered this matter at the request of the Deans of the twelve deaneries. The committee has resolved to continue the formula as it is; after due consideration I support this decision.

During recent years, the Pennsylvania Plan of Stewardship has been highly visible in the Diocese, with excellent results. Key to the Plan is the Biblical standard of proportional giving; the tithe, the traditional measure of Christian stewardship, is the minimum goal.

Proportional giving by congregations (and even by dioceses) is consistent with this understanding of stewardship. The tithe, therefore, is the guideline minimum.

I am persuaded that: as the resources of any individual or congregation or diocese increase in measure, so should the proportion of giving increase. The higher guideline percentage for those congregations to which have been given in abundance, reflects that commitment. (The Long Range Plan, accepted in May by Diocesan Council as the planning document of the Diocese, states as a goal that by 1990, this Diocese should be contributing for work outside our boundaries a full 50% of available resources. We are abundantly blessed with resources; I support movement toward that goal.)

I fully recognize that the Guideline amount is, in many cases, above the amount currently being pledged and contributed by many congregations. Some congregations, indeed, have indicated that these amounts are unrealistically high, and thus have a demoralizing and discouraging effect. I contend that if we have no goal toward which we can reach and stretch, we run the risk of becoming apathetic and irresponsible. Apathetic, irresponsible Christian stewardship has no place here.

The Guidelines have also been criticized as a not-so-subtle form of taxation. To be sure, the Guidelines and taxes are both expressed in percentages; but there the similarity ends. Webster defines a tax as a "forced contribution of wealth to meet the public needs of a government". The essence of Christian stewardship is "All things come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine own have we given Thee".

I urge each vestry to accept the suggested guideliine as a goal, and to determine how, not whether, they can best move toward it. This movement should be measured, not by numbers of dollars but by percentages. If, for example, current giving represents 5% of GPI, will it be increased 1 percent or 2 percent or (x) percent per year until the goal is achieved? The central issue is the decision to move forward toward a greater understanding of, and commitment to, responsible Christian stewardship.

It certainly would not be appropriate to suggest that all giving outside of the congregation be limited to the support of the Diocesan Program-Budget. Each congregation, in its commitment to Christ's mission, has an obligation to seek out ways and means by which to support Christ's ministry wherever He is proclaimed, served and acts. We give thanks for the witness which comes from that diversity.

Yet, we are members of that wonderful, sometimes perplexing and frustrating corporate body known as the Episcopal Church. As members and identified as Episcopalians, our primary responsibility is to support the work of this Church! That offering, that gift, must come first, so that the Church will continue to offer and express ministry and service in Christ's name here in our diocese, in our nation, and throughout the world.

Consider these thoughts as you approach the whole matter of the Guidelines. May we be better stewards, and continue to grow in our capacity to enable God's will and work to be done in and through His Church.

Faithfully,

LYMAN C. OGILBY
Bishop of Pennsylvania

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND PROPERTY

197th Convention

Bishop, Members of Convention:

There are three Resolutions relating to the Budget for 1981 which require your action. They are numbered R-9 in your packet. The first, Resolution A, relates to the adoption of the proposed Program-Budget for 1981. The other two, Resolutions B and C, are the customary housekeeping resolutions which have been employed by our Conventions since 1970. Resolution B provides for suspension of the Canons regarding the Assessment. Resolution C provides for receipt of pledges from congregations and adjustment of the Budget by Diocesan Council, if necessary.

Mr. Andrew Hunter, Chairman of the Budget Committee, will present the budget to you in a moment on behalf of the Diocesan Council, which has this canonical responsibility each year. This is Andy's first year as Chairman of the Budget Committee and he, Jan Duncan of the Bishop's Staff, and the other members of their Budget Committee certainly deserve our thanks for all they have done in putting the budget together for us. It is difficult work but it is very important work because the budget expresses, in a very concrete way, what we believe our serving ministry as Christians in this Diocese, at this time should be.

Now in order to put the proposed budget before you, it would be appropriate for Resolution A to be moved at this time. Then Mr. Hunter will speak to it.

APPENDIX #12

THE CHURCH FOUNDATION REPORT

Several changes in the Foundation's Board of Directors took place during the past year and they constitute the first part of this year's report to Convention.

Mr. Gordon Crouter's death took place on April 3, 1980. He had served on our Board for many years and also on the Foundation's Investment Committee of which he was the Chairman for ten years. The results of the Consolidated Fund during this long period speak for themselves and the benefits derived from his many years in the investment business are difficult, if not impossible, to measure. Beyond that, he was a wonderfully warm, friendly and gentle person, who gave years of devoted and dedicated service to the Foundation. We were indeed fortunate to have had his advice and counsel for so many years. We shall miss him and the members of the Board wish to take this opportunity to express their thanks and deep appreciation for all that he did.

At the April meeting, the Board elected Mrs. Phyllis H. Ford to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Crouter's death. She is currently the Assistant Director for Project Planning and Development of the Philadelphia Housing Development Corporation. She has had wide experience in the real estate and mortgage business. She was an Assistant Vice President of the Penn Federal Savings and Loan Association, the manager of the mortgage service subsidiary of one of the major City banks in connection with the Philadelphia Mortgage Plan, and the President of the Urban Bankers' Coalition of Delaware Valley. She was also the Chairperson of the Housing Committee of the Urban Coalition. Mrs. Ford is a member of the NAACP and a parishioner of St. Thomas' Church, West Philadelphia. We are very pleased to have her on our Board and look forward to our continued association with her.

The Annual Meeting of The Church Foundation will be held on Wednesday, October 29, 1980, on which date the Board will elect five directors for terms expiring in 1983. Pursuant to the provisions of the Foundation's By-Laws, Convention has the right to nominate at least two persons for each director to be elected.

The next part of my report has to do with the Foundation's Consolidated Fund. The latest figures are given in the September 5, 1980 Valuation Report of the Provident National Bank.

The unit value on September 5 was $23.04, up from $21.70 on December 5, 1979, the end of the last fiscal year. During this period, the Fund value increased from $19 million to $20.5 million. Of this increase, $1.2 million represented an increase in the unrealized appreciation of the securities held in the investment portfolio and $300,000 of net new additions to the Fund.

Earnings for the twelve-month period ended September 5 came to $1.54 per unit resulting in a 6.7% return.

The Fund is currently invested 66% in stocks and 34% in bonds and the unrealized appreciation of securities in the Fund is approximately $1.9 million. The stocks show unrealized gains of $3.5 million and the bonds $1.6 million of unrealized losses — a result by no means unexpected considering the recent performance of the stock market and the historic fluctuation of interest rates.

The overall performance of the Fund in the last year during which there were extraordinary swings in the securities and financial markets reflects the value of a balanced fund weighted in favor of stocks.

The current figures show steadily increasing income, the highest twelve-month earnings, the highest unit value and the highest Fund total in the history of the Fund.

The concluding portion of my report has to do with several real estate matters.

We have not made any major sales during the past year but several are in the offing and the Foundation may be involved in a mortgage foreclosure.

After much time and effort and a court proceeding, the Diocese has regained possession of the St. Luke's, Eddystone, church and rectory without the necessity of carrying out a formal eviction. The property was appraised and is now listed for sale with a local real estate firm. Hopefully, the matter will be concluded in the near future.

The Foundation holds title to two adjacent properties at 25th and West Lehigh Avenue which were formerly a part of the old St. Bartholomew's Church, Philadelphia, property. One is a vacant corner lot and the other is leased as a food market. The owner of the food market has expressed an interest in acquiring the two properties but, for the present, a sale is not recommended because the rental is used for the support of the AFCOM Learning Center in the old church building and also because the properties are believed likely to appreciate in value.

The possible mortgage foreclosure stems from the 1975 sale of St. Matthew's, Francisville, property located at 18th and Girard Avenue. The Foundation took back a $70,000 purchase money mortgage at 9% for 10 years. The mortgage has been in default almost continuously and negotiations are in progress to determine whether some arrangement can be made so as to avoid foreclosure. The outlook is not encouraging and a recommendation will be made to the Standing Committee in due course.

Finally, the Foundation has assisted in the search for a property in Bucks County as the site for the Church of the Holy Nativity, Wrightstown. Several properties were examined but each of them proved unsuitable for one reason or another and the search continues.

Respectfully submitted,

GEOFFREY STENGEL
Executive Vice-President

APPENDIX #13

Bishop Ogilby, Bishop Mosley, and Members of Convention:

This is the report of the Stewardship Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania known to many of you as the bearers and workers of the "Pennsylvania Plan".

Following the Phillies, and being a worker and teacher of stewardship may not have anything in common, except as I heard car loads of young people drive by my house in South Philadelphia I heard them shouting, "We're #1".

That made me think of Fr. Larry Seyler's phrase that I love to repeat, "If God if God, then God is First. And when God is First then Jesus is Lord, and when Jesus is Lord then we do live in the time of the Pentecost, and when all that is believed and acted upon — we are as Pope John Paul II said in Harlem — 'we are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song'."

But how do we communicate that kind of faith — a joy-filled, alive faith in a time of cynicism, political mediocrity, World Series fever, war in the Middle East, arms races, and general social disintegration.

One way that we have found to communicate that Easter faith in our time is to apply two parts of our tested and trusty Anglicism — the Bible and reason.

Imagine your vestry doing a Bible study of Luke 12:22-31 (Do not be anxious, the Lilies of the Field. Solomon in all his glory. Keep your eyes on the Kingdom, for your heavenly Father knows what you need.) And then working them through a forced field analysis — reason applied in the Spirit of the Holy Spirit. In the power of that same Holy Spirit one finds that a deep part of our soul, the part that cries out for true Christianity, holding in it's center a vital and loving Jesus is profoundly touched.

In the miracle of conversion we see for ourselves that God through Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit does meet our needs — so that each one of us can be abundant in our giving. Tithing is no longer a dirty word, because it no longer represents a loss of money, time and talent, but becomes a symbol in part of the marriage of the believer to the heart and mission of Jesus.

In our diocese the long range plan has really shaken us up. Stewardship is taking on a higher priority in our corporate life and that is exciting. In the National Church the general convention has stated that stewardship is the main work of the church and that is exciting.

However, many of you still think that we are a kind of spiritual and financial cheerleader squad. That we come into your parish and give a nice talk and rev up the spectators. When in fact we can and want to witness, and teach a Bible centered, sacramentally understood, psychologically and financially sound plan of Christian living through giving. This giving does not stop or start with money, it examines and challenges our whole system of priorities — in the best of responses it helps to put God through Jesus and the Holy Spirit first in our lives. In the worst of responses it angers a person who has Jesus at the bottom of his or her life. With Episcopalians, if one does convert his or her wallet, time and talent, the way is open to the Holy Spirit.

Our factual report is in our packets (RE-9 diocesan report) please look at it and call on us. Our experience tells us we have something that works, with committed laymen and laywomen and priests, who know their task, and pray their task through to completion. We are not narrow in our understanding and we can and do compliment well the gospel themes of your individual congregations. Our vision and prayer for all the congregations of this Diocese might be best understood in the vision of Malachi the prophet — Chapter 3 verse 10.

> "Bring the tithes into the treasury, all of them; let there be food in my house. Put me to the proof, says the Lord of Hosts, and see if I do not open windows in the sky and pour a blessing on you as long as there is need".

RE-9

REPORT OF THE STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE TO
THE 197TH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

There seems to be two identifiable trends in the area of stewardship in our diocese. The first is a shift from a clergy dominated group of consultants to a ever increasing lay committee. The second shift is in the parishes that call us and are interested in doing stewardship, Pennsylvania style. Originally, the parishes were wealthy, established parishes (St. Mark's, Locust Street, St. Luke's, Germantown) now more and more parishes that are not wealthy are doing Pennsylvania style stewardship. Both trends we applaud. I believe stewardship should be a lay ministry mainly because congregations expect to hear clergy speak of tithing. Therefore, giving clergy less power. Also Biblical and sacramental stewardship taught and proclaimed in a loving and non-obstrusive way would definitely help if not oblierate the financial burdens now being shouldered by the marginal and financially poor congregations.

We have also sponsored two diocesan wide meetings — one in the spring and one in the fall, total attendance approximately 110.

Number of parishes doing the program or actively pursuing stewardship education, Pennsylvania style 16.

Four new consultants now in final training all lay men and women.

In Jesus,

Father Carl W. Bell

XI. THAT Section 1 of Article V of the Constitution be amended as hereinafter provided, and the same be made known to the several Dioceses and Missionary Dioceses and to the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, in accordance with Article XI, in order that the same may be adopted at the next succeeding regular meeting of the General Convention:

THAT Section 1 of Article V of the Constitution be amended by substituting for the last seven lines, beginning immediately after the words "until the vacancy is filled", the following which will read:

> After consent of the General Convention, when a certified copy of the duly adopted Constitution of the new Diocese, including an unqualified accession to the Constitution and Canons of this Church, shall have been filed with the Secretary of the General Convention and approved by the Executive Council of this Church, such new Diocese shall thereupon be in union with the General Convention.

XII. THAT Section 4 of Article I of the Constitution be amended as hereinafter provided, and the same be made known to the several Dioceses and Missionary Dioceses and to the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, in accordance with Article XI, in order that the same may be adopted at the next succeeding regular meeting of the General Convention:

THAT Section 4 of Article I be amended by adding the word "Deacons" in the fifth line, so that said section will read:

> The Church in each Diocese which has been admitted to union with the General Convention shall be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than four ordained persons, Presbyters or Deacons, canonically resident in the Diocese, and not more than four Lay Persons, Communicants of this Church, in good standing in the Diocese but not necessarily domiciled in the Diocese; but the General Convention by Canon may reduce the representation to not fewer than two Deputies in each order. Each Diocese shall prescribe the number in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

XIII. THAT Section 4 of Article I of the Constitution be amended as hereinafter provided, and the same be made known to the several Dioceses and Missionary Dioceses and to the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, in accordance with Article XI, in order that the same may be adopted at the next succeeding regular meeting of the General Convention:

THAT Section 4 of Article I be amended by deleting in the fourth paragraph thereof the words "and Missionary Diocese", so that said paragraph as amended will read:

> On any question, the vote of a majority of the Deputies present shall suffice, unless otherwise ordered by this Constitution; or in cases not specifically provided for by the Constitution, by Canons requiring more than a majority; or unless the Clerical or the Lay representation from three or more Dioceses require that the vote be taken by orders. In all cases of a vote by orders, the two orders shall vote separately, each Diocese having one vote in the Clerical order and one vote in the Lay order; and the concurrence of the votes of the two orders shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the House. No action of either order shall pass in the affirmative unless it receives the majority of all votes cast, and unless the sum of all the affirmative votes shall exceed the sum of other votes by at least one whole vote.

The Episcopal Churchwomen are alive and thriving in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Occasionally the question surfaces: why have ECW? What better way to serve the church for those who have the time, the effort, and the inclination! For many of us, this is our call to ministry. Many of our Board members serve on vestries, as Deanery delegates and officers, and on Diocesan Council.

Unity, Affirmation, Involvement have continued as our theme this past year under the enthusiastic and loving leadership of our president, Elouise Yarrington. Elouise's annual report is the yellow page RE 15 in your packets. As you can see, it was an exciting year climaxed by the Triennial Meeting and General Convention.

Complete reports from our individual departments, committees, and allied organizations are included in the Journal. Please read them and be aware of the scope of our involvement. Our departments of Diocesan Ministries, Missions, Prayer and Worship, Promotion, World Services, the United Thank Offering, and the Lay Ministry Committee have carried out a full schedule and have included new faces among the experienced. We rely heavily on the dedication of our experienced members, but our thrust now is to educate and involve the many in parishes and Deaneries who remain unaware of our efforts to "work for the extenion of God's kingdom."

Recently we offered a day of leadership training attended by 25 parishes. We are in the process of revising our By-Laws. Coming Diocesan events include the annual Fall United Thank Offering Ingathering at Christ Church on Sunday, November 16. The Exploration Into Family Prayer, co-sponsored with the Family Life Committee, is the following Saturday, and the next day is Layette Sunday. The "Prayer in the 80's" series has already been booked for 80 programs in 12 parishes; a project that is going like hotcakes from our ECW oven. Each passing day at our Church House Office brings interest and excitement from a parish, an outside agency, and the clergy.

We never cease to be thankful for being included as part of the "team" of Church House. The assistance and sharing, comfort and love, are an ever-present party to our efforts. We are indeed thankful to all of you in the Diocese who support us in our work.

CLERGY DEPLOYMENT — 1974-1980: Prepared by George H. Soule
Administrative Assistant for Clergy Deployment

The table on the second page of this report continues the statistical series on clergy deployment beginning with the 191st Diocesan Convention (1974). Figures for the past year reflect a comparatively high level of deployment activity and a continued low level of unemployment or underemployment.

Several parallel efforts are under way to improve our intentional strategy in clergy deployment, for the benefit of clergy themselves and for the ministry they are called to.

1. Positions filled by the Bishop's appointment, and the selection of people to fill them, are being considered, not only one-by-one, but also in terms of Diocesan mission strategy, with due concern for personal growth of clergy and strengthening of the Church's ordained ministry. This will be furthered by the proposal for revisions in Diocesan Canon 14 which is coming before this Convention.

2. The Diocesan Intern Program has been extended to all entry level positions in the Diocese, to give each person the widest possible experience and training in the first two years of ministry. This is aided by the recent Alban Institute study "Crossing the Boundary" from seminary into stipendiary ministry.

3. Counseling resources for clergy and consultation resources for parishes are being improved to get better fit of "square pegs in square holes." By the end of this year, we will have four clergy trained in using the New York computer, and we expect to have made substantial improvement in the self-study guidelines for congregations seeking a rector. The Consultant Network is developing a program to improve the transition and start-up period for new pastors.

4. We are beginning to develop, and hope to publicize, explicit criteria for clergy to meet in qualifying for hard-to-fill positions in this Diocese. These will be used as a guide in encouraging or discouraging clergy seeking to come into this Diocese, or resident clergy seeking a change.

5. We are beginning consultations this fall to improve our skills in congregational development and clergy deployment for predominantly black congregations.

6. An intentional strategy for deployment of women is being prepared.

7. We are continuing to develop resources to assist clergy who want to make an orderly and respectable transition into non-parochial work or non-stipendiary ministry.

8. I am on a sub-committee of the National Church Deployment Board to study mobility opportunities and experience for clergy over Age 50.

RE-1

THE BISHOP'S TASK FORCE ON HOUSING

In January, 1980, the Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby commissioned the Bishop's Task Force on Housing, the Rev. Richard M. Turk serving as Chairperson, to study various ways that the Diocese could respond to the need for housing in the metropolitan Philadelphia area. The Task Force on Housing then set out to study the different housing efforts in the Metropolitan Area, and establish a set of goals and objectives for itself. We stated our goals in this way:

(1) To serve the diocesan community by fostering the providing of housing and necessary support services for those most in need.

(2) To interest and motivate the parishes throughout the Diocese and their individual members in effective support of the Episcopal Church in its efforts to help relieve the unacceptable housing conditions.

One of the immediate needs that we identified was to provide for "Bridge Money" to community groups working on housing rehabilitation. The Task Force decided to work closely with the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation in designing a program to provide "Bridge Money". The concept of a fund for "Bridge Money" works in this way:

(1) A community group, approved by the City of Philadelphia's Loan and Grant Program and by the Task Force, would apply for money to do rehabilitation work in a specific area.

(2) The Loan and Grant Program would approve the work, and make a promise of payment.

(3) The work would be accomplished, and a voucher presented to the Loan and Grant Program.

(4) The problem is that payment from the City takes 4-6 weeks, and community groups do not have sufficient cash flow to pay contractors. The banks hesitate to offer credit, and so there is a need for the "Bridge Money". This is where the Task Force and the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation fit in.

(5) When the City makes payment, the money comes back.

On May 27, 1980, the Standing Committee of the Diocese authorized a $250,000 revolving loan to the Task Force: this money is being used for "Bridge Loans". Since June, 1980, the Task Force has authorized loans totaling $104,760: we expect this money to generate rehabilitation work of $932,443. Remember: no money is lost, every penny comes back to us.

There is more to be done! We hope to create a fund of One Million Dollars, and this money will rehabilitate approximately 500 houses a year.

We are asking our parishes to lend us money from endowment funds or any sources available. And remember, that you will not lose one penny; all money will come back to you.

We believe that this is God's work.

Chairperson
Bishop's Task Force on Housing

RE-19

TO: Deputies to the 197th Diocesan Convention

FROM: The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Bishop of Pennsylvania

SUBJ: Report from Meeting of the House of Bishops October 2-9, 1980, Chattanooga, Tennessee

Enclosed please find the texts of a number of Resolutions adopted by the House of Bishops. These Resolutions are not binding on the Episcopal Church but do reflect the mind of the House of Bishops on these subjects at this time and as should be reviewed by us as we consider and debate the issues to which they are addressed.

In addition to the enclosed material I wish to share with you some information on another matter. In 1980 a report of a survey study of the office of Bishop was distributed under the title "Bishops and Diocesan Councils View the Episcopate: A Study in Church Leadership," which provides extensive information about what bishops do and how they feel about what they do. In addition, this study calls attention to the fact that while coping with the varied activities of the role and office many bishops feel deeply the need to discuss in clearer theological terms what it means to be a bishop. There is to be a series of regional meetings in 1981 for bishops to meet together in small groups with the assistance of some skilled and trained theologians for shared theological reflection on the episcopate.

The Resolutions which follow are on these subjects:

A. Resolution on the MX Missile System

B. National Security through the development of economic relations with emerging nations

C. Resolution on National Service

D. Resolution concerning the terrorism of the Ku Klux Klan

E. Resolution of Housing as Mission

RESOLUTION ON THE MX MISSILE SYSTEM Adopted

Presented by Bishops Charles and Frensdorf

WHEREAS the present national defense system — with bipartisan support — calls for the building of an immense, multibillion dollar missile system, usually referred to as the MX system,

AND WHEREAS present plans locate this system in Nevada and Utah at great economic, social, and environmental cost,

AND WHEREAS it appears that the rest of the nation is only barely aware of the incredible extent of the project, or of the military strategy controversy related to it, or of the unimaginable and horrible consequences resulting from either its use or its being attacked,

AND WHEREAS such consequences are not limited to the states in which the system is to be located, but will effect the whole nation,

AND WHEREAS the people of Nevada and Utah need the help of all the churches, and other concerned people, in bringing the real effects and potential consequences to the attention of all the people of the U.S. in every state,

AND WHEREAS time is of the essence since these plans are rapidly being cast in institutional concrete,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of this House urge the people and congregations of their respective diocese

1. to constant prayer for the guidance of the Holy Spirit on this matter; and
2. to the study of the MX system, the ability of the system to achieve its purpose of protection and peace, and its potential effect on the people and environment of Nevada, Utah, and the Nation.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that upon results of such study the conclusions be communicated to the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate and to the President of the U.S. and the Secretary of Defense.

RESOLUTION ON NATIONAL SECURITY Adopted

WHEREAS, the past several years of history have raised doubts as to the efficacy of certain aspects of our foreign policy in establishing national security and world peace, and

WHEREAS, this policy has involved an ever increasing participation of our country in the selling and supplying of arms to nations regardless of their concern for human rights, and

WHEREAS, the annual world expenditure on arms approximates 600 billion dollars which drains resources which could reverse the trend of increasing poverty and suffering within the developing nations and amongst our own rural and urban poor;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the House of Bishops urge the leaders of our nation (to direct our foreign policy) to seek our national security by developing with emerging nations economic relations which are mutually beneficial and not exploitative; granting them aid instead of arms; and supporting the worldwide struggle for human rights.

RESOLUTION ON NATIONAL SERVICE Adopted

Submitted by Bishop William Davidson

WHEREAS, the 66th General Convention adopted a resolution asserting "its opposition to peacetime conscription or any form of compulsory national service, unless a national emergency is declared by the Congress"; and

WHEREAS, the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church and the Episcopal Church Center staff have sought to assist young members of this Church in their anxiety and conscientious struggles in the face of being required to register, by making resources available to young people, clergy, and others throughout the Church; and

WHEREAS, the Joint Standing Commission on Peace established by the 66th General Convention is not expected, until the next General Convention, the present plans which will provide direction in this situation, now

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the House of Bishops

1. express its continued support of the resolution of 66th General Convention regarding peacetime conscription
2. encourage the Executive Council and the Church Center Staff to continue and expand its program of providing resources to assist young persons and those who counsel them in this difficult period in their lives
3. inform the President of the United States of its continued opposition in regard to peacetime conscription, unless a national emergency is declared by the Congress, and
4. requests the President and the Congress to establish alternatives for volunteer national service in addition to military service, in order that young people may demonstrate their desire to serve their country in a variety of ways.

RESOLUTION ON THE KU KLUX KLAN

WHEREAS, the 66th General Convention of the Episcopal Church passed a resolution condemning the resurgence of the activity of the Ku Klux Klan and similar racist hatred groups which continue to engage in outrageous acts of terrorism and bodily harm in the several United States of America, and

WHEREAS, five black women citizens of Chattanooga, Tennessee were gunned down by admitted klansmen on the night of 19 April, 1980, which is further evidence of the marked increase of Ku Klux Klan activity; and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of Tennessee through its office of Metropolitan Ministry is actively involved in efforts of reconciliation and harmony in the Chattanooga community;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the House of Bishops assembled in Chattanooga, Tennessee, strongly condemns the terrorism of the Ku Klux Klan as a moral outrage, totally contrary to God's laws and the teachings of Jesus Christ, as well as an affront to all civilized persons; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the House of Bishops offers its continued prayers for the Chattanooga community and in particular for the victims of Ku Klux Klan terrorism and for those engaged in efforts of reconciliation, as well as for the individuals who perpetuate this violence, and be it further

RESOLVED, that the House of Bishops calls upon the House of Representatives Sub-Committee on Civil and Constitutional Rights for Congressional investigation of Ku Klux Klan terrorism; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the House of Bishops calls upon the Justice Department of the United States to enforce vigorously the existing statutes which protect the civil rights and civil liberties of the victims of Ku Klux Klan terrorism; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the House of Bishops calls upon its membership and other religious bodies to witness against the Ku Klux Klan publicly and privately, and be it further

RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, the members of Congress, the Justice Department, the Governor of Tennessee, and the Mayor and City Council of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

RESOLUTION ON HOUSING AS MISSION

HOUSE OF BISHOPS

Chattanooga, Tennessee — October, 1980

WHEREAS the 65th General Convention (in Resolution B-172) declared that housing is a mission of the Church; and

WHEREAS shelter costs have now risen to such a point that less than 20% of this nation's newly formed families can now obtain mortgage financing, and

WHEREAS over 50% of this nation's renters must spend in excess of 25% of their income for shelter costs; and

WHEREAS this nation is now experiencing a net loss of 3% of its rental stock per year as a result of urban renewal, condominium conversion, and obsolesence; and

WHEREAS the number of Federally assisted housing units proposed in the administration's 1981 budget is not only decreased by over 10% but also directed toward higher income groups,

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the House of Bishops:

1. Expresses concern over the deteriorating housing conditions facing the low income residents of this nation,
2. Reaffirms intention to mobilize the resources of PECUSA to address those problems,
3. Takes note of the positions of the Roman Catholic Bishops' Conference (Statement of November 1975) and affirms our belief that housing is among our nation's foremost social problems, and a pastoral imperative for the church,
4. Encourages the development of local parish and diocesan housing interest groups,
5. Supports the work of the Executive Council Housing Organization (ECHO) Subcommittee, and
6. Encourages the expansion of the Interreligious Coalition on Housing (ICH).

APPENDIX #20

RE-4

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

October 1, 1979 to September 30, 1980

At a stated meeting held on October 30, 1979, the Standing Committee received a report from the Secretary of Convention confirming the election of the Rev. James A. Trimble and Mrs. Cecily E. Grannum. The Rev. William Musselman and Alfred W. Putnam, President and Secretary respectively, declined to serve another term. Accordingly, the Rev. James A. Trimble was elected President and Duffield Ashmead, III was elected Secretary. The Committee thanked the outgoing President and Secretary for their services in those offices.

During the period of this report the Committee approved the election of six Diocesan Bishops, four Bishops Coadjutor and the calling of elections for both Bishops and Bishops Coadjutor. In light of the recently approved position of Assistant Bishop adopted by the National Canons, the Bishop and Committee re-examined the policy of recent years of in most cases declining to consent to the election of Suffragan Bishops. The new policy will be to allow each Diocese to determine the wisdom of such elections in light of its own needs, presumably after considering the alternative of appointing an Assistant Bishop. Accordingly consent was given in four instances and denied in one (prior to the policy change).

The Committee on Candidates was chaired by the Rev. Michael Becker, who also provided liaison as a member of the Commission on Ministry. Under their guidance, the Standing Committee approved five ordinations to the Priesthood and three Ordinations to the Diaconate. In addition it approved two Candidates and one Postulant and certified a priest of the Roman Catholic Church as an acceptable applicant for ordination under Title III, Canon 12.

The Committee consulted with the Bishop in two cases of renunciation of the Ministry and certified both priests to the Bishop pursuant to Title IV, Canon 10 after extensive correspondence. It also reaffirmed its prior certification of another priest who had appeared before the Committee last year. All three priests have subsequently been deposed by the Bishop.

The litigation over possession of the real and personal property of St. Lukes's, Eddystone, resulted in an order of ejectment against the former priest who had been resisting the action. The Standing Committee declined to evict the priest and his family until the end of the school year and eventually the family left voluntarily and have purchased another residence in the area, with modest financial assistance authorized by the Committee. The Committee is currently considering possible alternatives as to the use of disposition of the property.

The Committee had under consideration many matters involving trusts, estates and transactions involving real estate. Prominent among these was the final determination of the disposition of the funds arising from the dissolution of St. Andrews Church, thus completing a transaction that has been in the works for many years. Sales of five real estate properties were approved and advice has been given with respect to eight other transactions, some of which are still pending.

During the year one parish had a problem in completing a sale of property, title to which was not held by Church Foundation. All parishes were urged in such cases to make sure that competent counsel is retained to ascertain whether there are restrictions or conditions with respect to sale and to make sure that proper corporate procedures are followed. In addition attention is drawn to the Committee's detailed statement of policy with regard to real property, copies of which can be obtained from Church House.

The Committee modified its policy of asking that a portion of the sale price of parish real estate should be "tithed" to the Diocese. Under the new policy it is hoped that in cases not involving either a sale to allow the parish to continue to function or a sale to produce a fund to support clergy housing, the parish involved will seriously consider contributing a part of the proceeds to the Diocese or for a Diocesan program.

Many thanks are again due to John Rettew, Controller of the Diocese and to Geoffrey Stengel, Executive Vice President of the Church Foundation for the extended efforts and expertise that they have contributed to the Standing Committee's real estate function during the past year.

The Committee approved nominations to the governing bodies of various organizations related to the Diocese. It also approved the merger of Cathedral Village with the Houston Foundation.

Two current projects perhaps deserve special mention. Arrangements are being made to catalogue and preserve the Diocesan Archives in consultation with the National Endowment for the Humanities. Authority has been given to seek third-party funding and to develop long-range plans for the housing of these valuable documents. Plans are also in the making to find funding to support short-term loans to the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation for the rehabilitation of housing for low-income families.

The Standing Committee considered the budget for the Episcopal Function of the Program, Budget of the Diocese for 1980.

The June meeting of the Committee was taken up in large part in consultation with Geoffrey Stengel, Executive Vice President of the Church Foundation and Elliott Farr, Chairman of the Foundation's Investment Committee in a review of the investment policies. Parishes should be reminded that the consolidated fund of the Foundation may not be appropriate for certain funds inasmuch as one of the significant aims of that fund is growth over a relatively long term. The Foundation is available to any parish for consultation and guidance in a particular case.

The Bishop continued to consult with the Committee on a variety of matters including among others, personnel, public relations, communication with the News Media and public officials, the business of General Convention, and other administrative questions.

The Committee has been meeting in the offices of the Diocese on the fourth Tuesday of every month except July and August. Advance notice is requested from persons who wish to appear on particular matters in order to facilitate the scheduling of Committee business. Interest persons have appeared on several occasions during the year and their presence has been helpful to the deliberations of the Committee.

Respectively submitted,

DUFFIELD ASHMEAD, III,
Secretary
JAMES A. TRIMBLE,
President

APPENDIX #21

REPORT OF CHURCH TRAINING AND DEACONESS HOUSE

Bishops and members of the Convention:

Since 1967, the primary function of the Board of Managers of the Church Training and Deaconess House has been to provide financial assistance to women for advance training for church work or associated benevolent work pertaining to the Episcopal Church. This assistance has been given through the Scholarship Fund. Each year about twenty women receive grants for Graduate work in such studies as Theology, Christian Education, medicine, Social Work, Teaching and Gerontology.

In 1980, the Board made twenty-one such grants for graduate work — Seven were renewal grants, fourteen new grants. Of the twenty-one, five grants were made to women from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, one to a young woman from the Diocese of Central Philippines, and the others to women around the country.

Although one of the priorities is to give grants to women applicants from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, we receive relatively few applications from this Diocese. It may be that we do not have qualified women from this Diocese going into church or church-related careers — or perhaps such women do not need financial assistance — or is it that they do not know such scholarship aid is available. (It is for that reason we wish to bring this to the attention of the Convention.)

A call to Church House can put applicants in touch with the appropriate procedures. Applications must be received by March 31 for the following Academic year. And, of course, all applications will receive a fair review.

Thank you.

Council adopted a resolution that the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania will consider acting as a co-sponsor of housing projects that are financed in whole or in part by public funds . . . limited to providing technical assistance and service resoruces at its own cost and expense and within its own budgetary and financial limitations as may be needed.

September 20, 1980

Meeting Places

Council adopted a resolution to continue its policy of meeting in as many parishes as possible that can be reached by public transportation with the addition that transportation be provided from the depot to the meeting place.

Proposed Program-Budget 1982

Council adopted a resolution instructing the Program-Budget Committee to continue the development of the 1982 Program-Budget, based on the Long Range Plan and adopted another resolution to be presented to Convention to direct each vestry in the Diocese to study the plan by March 1, 1981.

RE-13

YOUTH MINISTRY 1980

Another bright fall season brings fresh challenges and new potentials in parish youth ministries. The Youth Ministry Office and the Youth Committee want to hear from you; Rectors, Assistant Clergy, Youth Leaders, what is happening (or not happening) in Youth Ministry in your place? We want to know of your successful programs and approaches. Please do not forget to tell us as much as you will share about what works well.

Keeping a parish in touch with the Diocesean Youth Ministry Office takes a little effort. But this effort will pay real dividends in your parish youth ministry. Please take time to keep us informed. Please keep your parish youth and leaders posted on Diocesean Youth Events and Efforts. Just call LO7-6650 and ask for the Youth Ministry Office. Talk to the Rev. Mary Adebonojo, our coordinator, or Jane Naegele, her assistant. We'll be delighted to hear from you. Or write to us at 1700 Market St., Suite 2616, Philadelphia, PA 19103.

Working together, we can bring Episcopal Youth Ministry to new vitality in the 1980's!

(The Rev.) BERNARD L. MAGUIRE
Chairman

Accomplishments:

1. The arrival of the Rev. Mary Adebonojo for the position of Youth Co-ordinator.

2. The hiring of her assistant, Ms. Jane Naegele.

3. Both the Co-ordinator and the Assistant were heavily involved with Youth work at the Deanery level this past winter and early spring. They made important visits to the Brandywine, Bucks, and Montgomery deaneries.

4. In addition, the following parishes have been visited by either the Co-ordinator or her assistant or both:

Advent, Kennett Square
All Saints', Norristown
Christ Church, Ridley Park
Church Farm School

Episcopal Academy	St. James, Prospect Park
Good Samaritan, Paoli	St. Luke's, Germantown
Holy Trinity, Lansdale	St. Martin's, Boothwyn
St. Peter's, Glenside	St. Martin's, Radnor (retreat)
Messiah, Gwynedd	St. Mary's, Chester
Redemption, Southampton	St. Thomas', Whitemarsh

5. The Co-ordinator was also in contact with the following agencies or committees: Crisis Intervention, Lay Ministry Committee of ECW for the planning of a teen-parent event, Liturgy Committee, Convention Planning Committee, Educational Resource Team, and the Hunger Committee. She and her Assistant were also active in training and planning sessions for the youth representatives to Diocesan Council and the Youth Ministry Committee.

6. She has also been engaged in Conferences aimed at Adult youth advisors, and she has visited the following parishes in that capacity: St. George's, West End; St. James, Prospect Park; St. James, Kingsessing; St. John's, Compass; St. Mark's, Locust Street, and St. Philip's, Lombard Street.

7. Besides being highly visible at the Parish, Deanery, and Diocesan levels in the past eight months, our Diocese has been represented by our Youth Co-ordinator and her Assistant at two Provincial Youth Ministers' Meetings, and one National Conference for Youth Ministers.

Goals and Strategies:

1. To strengthen and/or build viable youth groups at the local (congregational/congregational cluster) levels.

2. To strenghten programming for youth ministry at the deanery level, especially in those deaneries farthest away from diocesan central activities.

3. To provide ideas, training, and resourcing so as to empower adult youth advisors and youth in planning and executing youth programs, mission, and ministry at the congregational/congregational cluster, deanery, and diocesan levels.

4. To strengthen communication throughout the diocese among youth and youth advisors concerning programs, ministry and opportunities for mission and ministry at all levels and concerning topics generally of interest and concern to youth and youth advisors.

5. To aid in the integration of youth in the on-going life of the congregation, deanery, diocese, province, and National Church.

6. To build programs for ministry to and evangelization of unchurched youth.

7. Through a Young Adult Task Force, to begin to explore the needs of, and provide ideas, resources, and training for ministry to, with and for young adults, especially post-high school young adults who are not students.

The Committee for Youth Ministry welcomes this opportunity to report to Convention, keeping before you an overview of the work which has been accomplished and that which we seek to accomplish in the coming year.

EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

Report to 196th Diocesan Convention

A Year of Consolidation

It was a year ago that our Executive Director, the Rev. William J. Winterrowd, announced that he would be leaving in February 1980. A Search Committee, chaired by the Rev. Barbara C. Harris, will soon complete its task of recommending to the Board of Council of Episcopal Community Services the person to whom it will be entrusting the direction of our ongoing work.

During the last year (our 110th), under the guidance of a volunteer acting executive director, Episcopal Community Services has continued to act as the right hand of the Diocese, carrying out its human services work in the five-county area. Among the high points of the last twelve months at ECS have been:

1) Study of ECS's structure and function —

The Rev. James A. Trimble accepted the chairmanship of an able and dedicated committee of Board and staff to study the organization and structure of ECS, and the function of the Board of Council, its subsidiary boards and committees, and the executive director. Recommendations of this committee to the Board of Council have reflected many important insights concerning the qualifications necessary for an executive director, as well as a number of significant improvements in the organization and function of ECS.

As part of its deliberations, the committee studied the feasibility and desirability of dividing the properties and operating functions now vested in Episcopal Community Services into two, or perhaps three, separate entities. After considerable discussion, the committee opposed any division of ECS, and the Board of Council approved the committee's recommendation.

2) Strengthened internal management —

With a budget of over $7 million and a staff of approximately 375, ECS is of a size and complexity that demands increasingly professional direction. In addition to an able management team, we are fortunate to have exceptionally dedicated staff, particularly in our capable program directors. One of the main emphases of the last year has been to further develop the consistency and order of their day-to-day work.

3) Pursuit of additional financial resources —

The financial development of ECS has been on a plateau during the last decade. Because of the pressures of inflation and increasing human needs, ECS has stepped up its efforts to attract new resources and to hold the line on existing expenses. The response has been excellent. Contributions to ECS were greater during the last year than in any year since the capital drive for Springfield Retirement Residence in the early 70's. In addition, our costs have been contained. This is particularly evident at All Saints' Hospital, where operating expenses increased by only 4% during 1979, while expenses for hospitals soared nationally by 13.4%.

4) Further emphasis on ECS's Partnership with Parishes —

This cooperative effort with the parishes has been a major interest of ECS for some time. Our parish representatives have been most helpful in scheduling programs, disseminating information and generally acting as the connecting link between ECS and the people of the parishes. Our speakers bureau has been enlarged, and new programs to help each parish will be announced shortly.

Episcopal Community Services is your human services agency. And even as we await the appointment of a new executive director, we have not been standing still. We are moving forward to carry out the mission that began 110 years ago, and we want you to work in partnership with us.

HOWARD KELLOGG
Acting Executive Director

RE-7

REPORT OF DIOCESAN ECUMENICAL OFFICER/ DIOCESAN ECUMENICAL COMMISSION

— Ecumenical Officer and Commission Chairman: The Rev. John F. Leser
— Associate Ecumenical Officer: Mrs. Kathryn E. Darby
— Staff Liaison and Commission Advisor: The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley

Throughout 1980, our Commission continued to be guided and challenged by our stated purpose:

> "TO BE OF SERVICE TO THE DIOCESE AND THE LOCAL PARISH THROUGH PLANNING, INITIATING, COMMUNICATING, SUPPORTING AND ENCOURAGING ALL ECUMENICAL ACTIVITIES LEADING TO THE ULTIMATE GOAL OF THE VISIBLE UNITY OF THE CHURCH".

Underlying this report of ecumenical highlights are two personal feelings: one of continuing inadequacy that so much more could have been offered and initiated . . . and, on a happier note, a feeling of gratitude to the sixteen other active members of the Commission for their cooperation and ecumenical enthusiasm and for the many unheralded and usually not widely publicized ecumenical ventures continuously happening throughout our Diocesan area.

Just one month after the 1979 Diocesan Convention, our Commission rejoiced in the added impetus given ecumenical work in the excellent three-page article in the November, 1979, issue of "THE EPISCOPALIAN" by Pat Batta entitled "THE MANY-FACETED NATURE OF THE UNITY WE SEEK". This article gave many local models of ecumenism and summarized several of important Resolutions offered by the Standing Commission on Ecumenical Relations and passed by General Convention, including the adoption of a statement on "THE NATURE OF THE UNITY WE SEEK", which gives a preview of how organic unity among the Churches is visualized by our tradition. Here is a summary of that thought-provoking vision:

> "THE VISIBLE UNITY WE SEEK WILL BE ONE EUCHARISTIC FELLOWSHIP . . . A COMMUNION OF COMMUNIONS, BASED UPON ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CATHOLICITY AND APOSTOLICITY . . . ALL WILL RECOGNIZE EACH OTHER'S MEMBERS AND MINISTRIES. ALL WILL SHARE THE BREAD AND THE CUP OF THE LORD . . . ALL WILL PROCLAIM THE GOSPEL TO THE WORLD WITH ONE MIND AND PURPOSE. ALL WILL SERVE THE NEEDS OF MANKIND WITH MUTUAL TRUST AND DEDICATION . . . WE BELIEVE WAYS CAN NOW BE FOUND TO EXPRESS THIS CALL TO A COMMUNION OF THE CHURCHES IN THE BODY OF CHRIST. AS THE CHURCHES BECOME PARTNERS IN MISSION, THEY WILL MOVE FROM PRESENT INTERRELATEDNESS TO INTERDEPENDENCE." (The Episcopalian, Nov., '79, page 13)

The complete form of this "vision" is in the introduction of The Detroit Report, the results of a five-day National Ecumenical Consultation held in that city in November, 1978, climaxing the Triennial Ecumenical Study of our Church authorized in 1976. That Report, plus a very clear and helpful analysis of the four national dialogues in which the Episcopal Church is engaged (Roman Catholic, Orthodox, Lutheran and C.O.C.U.) and quotes from 126 historic documents of General Conventions and Lamberth Conferences of Anglican Bishops showing our commitment to ecumenism, are all now contained under one cover in a paper-back Seabury Press Book to which our Ecumenical Commission devoted one full day of study and discussion with the author present as resource person: "A COMMUNION OF COMMUNIONS: ONE EUCHARISTIC FELLOWSHIP" (edited by The Rev. J. Robert Wright, History Professor, General Theological Seminary, N.Y.C., and member of the Anglican/Roman Catholic Consultation and our Standing Commission on Ecumenical Relations. This Study Day in February, 1980, included Presbytery participation.

Dr. Wright's excellent book, with its study guide, is the basic ecumenical resource of our Church and is strongly recommended for use throughout the parishes and deaneries of our Diocese. A limited number of copies are available through the Ecumenical Officer at a discounted price of $8.00 each, and several of the books have been distributed to denominational and Roman Catholic ecumenical leaders for shared discussion and implementation.

On The National And International Scene:

To keep in close touch with both world-wide and national ecumenical dialogues and developments, the Ecumenical Officer represented the Diocese at the 17th National Workshop on Christian Unity and the 6th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers (E.D.E.O.) held during the same week of March 10-13, 1980, in Seattle, Washington. Through worship, plenary presentations, group Bible Study, a wide selection of seminars and workshops as well as countless informal conversations, this annual gathering is always a stimulating and renewing experience ecumenically.

In May, members of our Commission helped to plan an ecumenical dialogue program "SPIRITUAL ECUMENISM . . . AND THE VISIBLE UNITY WE SEEK" with the Cardinal's Commission on Human Relations and the Metropolitan Christian Council of Phila. (M.C.C.P.), during which the Rev. José Sanchez Vaquero, Director of the Ecumenical Institute of Pope John XXIII in Salamanca, Spain, spoke and led discussions in three different religious settings: Lutheran, Roman Catholic and Episcopal. Two members of our Commission had attended his mid-summer Institute previously, and we recommend to the clergy and laity of the Diocese serious consideration of attending such ecumenical conference and study opportunities. The Bossey Institute of the World Council of Churches and the Canterbury Summer Conference are but two such programs.

ON THE LOCAL SCENE:

Our Diocese continues its strong and active relationship with the Metropolitan Christian Council of Philadelphia (M.C.C.P.) — whose new Executive Director, The Rev. C. Edward Geiger, will be installed on Sunday, October 12, at 3:30 p.m. at Overbrook Presbyterian Church in a Service including participation by Elizabeth J. Forrester, current M.C.C.P. President, and Board Members, Fr. Benjamin Axelroad and Bishop Ogilby, who will be the guest preacher — and with a number of cooperative ventures with the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Philadelphia and our brothers and sisters of the Jewish community through the Bishop's Committee on Episcopal-Jewish Dialogue. Diocesan involvement in world-wide, national and metropolitan social issues are ecumenically oriented, and the Ecumenical Officer is serving as a member of the Diocesan Council Committee on the Nestle's Boycott.

The ecumenical dimension of the life of our Diocese is clearly set forth in the Revised Long-Range Planning Group Report to Diocesan Council of March 15, 1980, on page 33: under the caption "VISION: THAT THEY MAY ALL BE ONE, FATHER, AS YOU AND I ARE ONE" (St. John 17:21), the long-range strategy is described as applying the "LUND PRINCIPLE" (". . . that the Episcopal Church at every level in its life be urged to act together and in concert with other churches of Jesus Christ in all matters except those in which deep differences of conviction or church order compel us to act separately . . .": adopted by our 1977 Diocesan Convention) in social action, shared worship, youth programs and chaplaincies, study and retreat programs, etc., with our Commission happy to be available, as requested, as a resource.

RE-8

THE BISHOP'S DIOCESAN COMMITTEE ON FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY

The Rev. Hugh Dickinson, Chair

Mrs. John W. Forrester, Bishop's Staff

Diocesan Convention Report, 1979-80

Although postponing a day-long Conference originally scheduled for February of 1980, the Committee has continued efforts to provide distinctive educational events and resource materials pertaining to Christian family life.

In consultation with Dr. Charles Hall of Beaver College, the Committee has designed a two-hour workshop on "Thresholds of Aging". The workshop relates aspects of the Gospel to the eight stages of human development as described by Erik Erikson. Also it shows how Christian understanding can overcome age disparities within a household. Designed for smaller groups, such as parish classes and deanery meetings, the Thresholds of Aging workshop will be launched in the Schuylkill Deanery in November of 1980.

In addition, one Committee member, the Rev. Frank Toia, has developed an experimental workshop on Intergenerational Living and Family Clusters, which he is prepared to conduct in local parishes.

In answer to an expressed concern about extremist cults and their impact upon Christian Faith and Families, the Committee is acquiring a modest library of material pertaining to cults, including the complete script of a documentary series produced by NBC. This material is available for loan to parish study groups. Pamphlets and brochures, published by Church and Governmental Agencies, germane to family life in its many aspects, also are being collected.

At present, the Family Life Ministry Committee, together with the Episcopal Churchwomen's Prayer and Worship Committee, is planning a day-long Conference, an Exploration into Family Prayer, to be held on November 22, 1980, at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill. Information and registration forms already have been mailed to all rectors in the Diocese, and it is hoped that at least one family from every parish will participate.

Respectfully,

HUGH DICKINSON
Chair

RE-6

JEWISH/EPISCOPAL DIALOGUE REPORT

The Diocesan Convention of 1978 requested the Bishop to set up a committee for the purpose of establishing a formal dialogue with those of the Jewish faith. The Bishop appointed The Very Reverend Maurice A. Coombs as chairman of the Episcopal component of the dialogue. A group of some 15 persons were invited to participate. The Jewish component is chaired by Rabbi Max Hausen with a similar number of Jewish members. In both cases the dialogue is composed of clergy and laity.

Between May 1979 and June 1980 the dialogue has met four times. Each meeting, alternating between a church and a synagogue, has begun with a light supper and time for informal conversation. The meeting then focused on a particular subject which was of concern to the two communities.

Dialogue #1. Main Line Reform Temple Wynnewood May 23 1979. Subject: The Cult Phenomena. Dean Coombs reviewed the Jewish Community Relations Council document titled "The Challenge of the Cults" an examination of the cult phenomena and its implications for the Jewish Community. Rabbi Hausen reviewed "Carnival of Souls" — Religious cults and young people written by Episcopal priest Joel A. MacCallan. Discussion followed the presentations.

Dialogue #2. Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd January 16 1980. This session was devoted to an examination of Religious Values and an approach to the Middle East Conflict. Background papers prepared by the J.C.R.C. and Dean Coombs were circulated prior to the meeting. Father John Hardwick of the Bishop's staff who is staff consultant to the dialogue and Rabbi David Wice of the Congregation Rodeph Shalom led the discussion.

Dialogue #3. Congregation Rodeph Shalom April 23 1980. Subject: Jewish and Christian approaches to the Hebrew Scriptures. An introduction to and analysis of the 53rd Chapter of Isaiah was led by Dr. Donald Brauner, Dean of the Reconstructional Rabbinical College and The Reverend Dr. John M. Holt (an Episcopal priest), instructor in the Department of Religious Studies, Villanova University.

Dialogue #4. The Church of St. Martin-In-The-Fields, Chestnut Hill June 18 1980. Subject: The National Council of Churches and the Mid East Conflict. This session was devoted to an in depth study of a comprehensive policy statement on the Middle East currently being considered by the National Council. The study was led by The Reverend Dr. William Weiler, Associate Ecumenical officer for Washington Affairs for the Episcopal Church and Rabbi Solomon Bernards, co-director of the Department of Interfaith Affairs for the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith.

In addition to the Dialogue meetings members have received printed material relating to mutual concerns including a paper by Judith Herschkopf Banki dealing with the Oberammergau Passion Play and a response to the paper by Dean Coombs who witnessed the Play in May 1980.

The Dialogue has affirmed its intention to continue. Future plans include the organization and sponsorship of a public event affording a larger number of Episcopalians and Jews the opportunity to have a similar experience. The existence of the Dialogue is a positive avenue for conversation between two important religious communities on religion, political and social issues important to both.

The Very Reverend Maurice A. Coombs
Co-Chairman, Episcopal/Jewish Dialogue

APPENDIX #28

RE-3

REPORT TO THE DIOCESAN COUNCIL

BY THE DIOCESAN NESTLE BOYCOTT COMMITTEE

September, 1980

At its June, 1980 meeting, Diocesan Council passed a resolution endorsing the Nestle Boycott. The resolution also requested that the Diocesan Nestle Boycott Committee continue to monitor the situation and asked that the Committee make recommendations to Diocesan Council in September as to ways of implementing the study.

The following is an update on the Boycott:

Background: As stated in our May, 1980 report to Diocesan Council, the Nestle Boycott has been in effect since 1977. It is supported by many church groups. (The complete list of Boycott endorsers is 10 pages long).

Reason for the Boycott: Multinational corporations indiscriminately promote the use of expensive milk formula products in poor and developing countries to mothers who could more safely breastfeed. Unsanitary conditions and other factors which preclude proper use of these products contribute to widespread malnutrition and infant mortality in many areas. The Nestle Company is the world's leading seller of baby formula in developing countries.

Reasons for continuing the Boycott:

The following themes are relevant to our concern and are suggested for development through sermons, Bible-study groups and other Diocesan or Deanery gatherings:

1. The Word Became Flesh in the Infant Child of Bethlehem

Dominating our thoughts in Advent is personal preparation for the great central fact and good news of our faith, the message of "EMMANUEL" ("God with Us" — St. Matthew 1:23): "AND THE WORD BECAME FLESH AND DWELT AMONG US . . ." (St. John 1:14).

God has visited and redeemed His people through the full humanity of His Son, Jesus Christ — an exposed and vulnerable identification with our human life which began as the new-born Infant at Bethlehem.

2. The Infant Christ: Born in Poverty and Personal Danger

Advent and Christmastide have always had a special appeal for young children — through the anticipation of giving and receiving gifts, through participation in Advent Candle-lighting and Manger ceremonies, Christmas Pageants, and through the long school holiday marked by parties and holiday foods. Spiritual encouragement and good health care contribute to their happiness.

Surely Jesus identifies with and rejoices in the sheer happiness of children. The Biblical record of His birth, however, reminds us that He was born in poverty among stable animals ". . . because there was no room for them in the inn" (St. Luke 2:7) and in great danger of being slaughtered by a jealous King Herod (St. Matthew 2:16). Joseph, Mary and her nursing Child were divinely hidden to flee south to Egypt to escape his wrath (St. Matthew 2:13-15): a perilous, long journey.

Thus does the Savior of the world, who throughout all His ministry shared and stood with the poor and the oppressed, identify at the beginning of His life with all the poor infants of the world and their families who struggle for survival.

3. The Twin Moods of Advent: Joyous Expectation and Sober Preparation

The liturgical readings from LECTIONARY A (concentrating mainly upon Isaiah, Romans and St. Matthew in Advent, with St. Luke and St. John added in Christmastide), the Advent Hymns and the very color of "royal purple" all contribute to the twin moods of joyous expectation and sober preparation in Advent.

More readily understandable (and acceptable) is the first theme: joyous expectation. We confess and rejoice that Christ has come into history and is coming daily into our lives as God's chief Gift to us.

More abstract and uncomfortable to us is the other mood or theme of Advent's "Coming": our belief that He will come again in the Second Coming to be our Judge. The prophetic call to repentance and sober preparation for this coming in judgment — both in Isaiah and St. John the Baptist — is a dominant Advent teaching often overshadowed by the approaching glitter of Christmas.

The basis upon which we all shall be judged, not only at the Second Coming but here and now, is not on our reputation or good name — John the Baptist makes that clear in St. Matthew 3:9, 10 — but on the love-in-action we demonstrate to those in need: the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick and the prisoner. In His allegory of the Sheep and the Goats concerning the Last Judgment, Christ taught that ". . . AS YOU DID IT TO ONE OF THE LEAST OF THESE MY BRETHREN, YOU DID IT TO ME" — or, in ignoring their needs, ". . . YOU DID IT NOT TO ME." (St. Matthew 25:40, 45).

By official action, the Diocesan Council of the Diocese of Pennsylvania has endorsed the Nestle's Boycott . . . and now urgently encourages our full participation, in prayerful study and bold action, to put an end to all the needless suffering and dying.

The Nestle Company is using its own interpretations of the recommendations on conduct passed at the World Health Organization/UNICEF meeting held in Geneva in October, 1979.

Infant formula industry representatives are lobbying for an international code of marketing that is basically industry's code. The proposed code will be reviewed by the Executive Committee of WHO in January, 1981. If approved, it will be presented to the WHO Assembly in May, 1981.

* * * * * * *

Churches and consumer groups have influenced a shift in the U.S. position on the issue. The Administration is now seemingly convinced of the necessity for developing an international code for marketing of infant formula and breastmilk substitutes. According to the Infant Formula Action Coalition (INFACT), "Thus, in the next nine months, it is most essential to keep the Congress and the Administration vigilant on the need for a strong code that does the maximum to protect mothers and infants — not the infant formula industry."

RESOURCE PACKET ON THE NESTLE BOYCOTT FOR USE AS A STUDY PROJECT BY CONGREGATIONS IN THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

October, 1980

At its June, 1980 meeting, Diocesan Council passed a resolution endorsing the Boycott of Nestle products because of the Nestle Company's aggressive promotion of milk formula products in developing countries.

It was further resolved that congregations be requested to make the Boycott a study and discussion project. The Diocesan Boycott Committee was asked to make recommendations at Council's September meeting on ways of implementing the study.

At its September meeting, the attached resource packet was approved. It includes:

1) A copy of the Committee's update on the Boycott, which was presented to Diocesan Council in September, 1980.
2) A recommendation that the study be undertaken by parishes and/or deaneries as an Advent project.
3) A list of Nestle products.
4) A copy of the INFACT (Infant Formula Action Coalition) Newsletter, Summer, 1980.

The Committee also recommends that "Into the Mouths of Babes", the 30-minute 16 mm. film narrated by Bill Moyers, be used as part of a study program.

The film can be rented from Fortress Press, 2900 Queen Lane, Phila., Pa. 19129 for $7. It can be previewed at the Fortress Film Rental Department (848-6800). Advance notice is requested.

AN INTRODUCTION TO SOME ADVENT-CHRISTMASTIDE THEMES FOR A STUDY OF THE NESTLE'S BOYCOTT ISSUE

Although this issue of the suffering and death of third-world infants due to unethical and aggressive infant-formula advertising practices cries out to Christian conscience for year-round study and action, the Nestle's Boycott Committee of Diocesan Council recommends the seasons of Advent and Christmastide (November 30-January 5) as a most appropriate time to focus on this urgent matter.

APPENDIX #29

THE GOAD OF THE GOSPEL

An Address to the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

October 25, 1980

There is a concept that has some currency presently which is, in my view, extremely damaging. It is that the churches have "done" hunger and are now ready to move on to the next "chic" issue, whatever that may be.

It is easy to see why this is so. With hunger, we face a huge and apparently intractable issue. Moreover, we have found to our consternation that it is an issue which is controversial. It seems to be far easier to move away from this and into such supposedly safe areas as evangelism, or missionary efforts, or Bible study.

There are, however, cogent reasons why we cannot do this. I submit that one cannot "do" hunger any more than one can "do" racism, evangelism, or Bible study. Can anyone here think seriously of saying, "Oh, we did evangelism in Epiphany." or "We did Bible study last Advent." or "We studied aging in Lent."? These things are embedded in our being.

Hunger touches too many of the issues with which we as Christians must contend. Hunger is concerned not only with nutrition and food production. Hunger is concerned also with population; with land use; with energy; with disarmament; with income distribution; with the operations of transnational corporations; with international trade agreements; with the new international economic order; even with our own personal and communal lifestyles. Hunger is, in the final analysis, concerned with justice — the justice of the Law, the Prophets, and the Gospel.

Hunger is a symptom of the dis-ease within our society. It is an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual disgrace. A disgrace not of the person in whom it is manifested but of the society that allows it to manifest itself and to persist.

It would be very easy to turn our backs on the hungry. But we can't. Not if we are Christians. For every time we turn our backs, we run up against the goad of the Gospel.

Too many people look upon the Gospel as a warm security blanket. In a sense, it is. To me, however, it is more a spur that drives me on to where, like Peter, I often do not wish to go.

It is all too easy to ignore the poor in our midst or, worse, to take them for granted. It is very easy to shunt them into ghettoes and forget that they are there. Then we turn to the Gospel and read about the rich man who simply accepted the presence of Lazarus at his gate as a fact of life. Upon reflection, we might recall that this is the only place in the New Testament that depicts a soul actually in Hell.

It is all too easy to say that "they" should not have so many children and the problem would then resolve itself. Then we read in the Gospel that Jesus had compassion on the multitude and fed them even in the face of the disciples' excuse that there were too many. We cannot escape the fact that there is enough food in the world today to give every human being some three thousand calories for their daily bread.

It is all to easy to invoke the laws of economics to show that the hungry can not, and indeed, should not, be fed. But Jesus had some harsh words to say about Pharisees who "neglect the commandment of God, in order to maintain the tradition of men." (Mark 7:8) and "overlook the weightier demands of the Law, justice, mercy, and good faith" (Matthew 23:23). We recall, too, the terrible apocalyptic judgement where Jesus identifies himself with the hordes of the unfed hungry and condemns absolutely those who fail to respond to them despite the protestation, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry?"

And then there is the Eucharist. Why did Jesus leave behind as his memorial the sharing of a simple meal? I do not think that anyone in this Church today will ever fully comprehend the depth and mystery of the Holy Eucharist. But on one level, the Eucharist may be regarded as a simple meal shared among the family of Jesus Christ gathered around his table. I believe that Jesus was telling us in this deepest of all parables what our Christian life can and should be. No one can partake of the Holy Eucharist and ignore those who hunger. No one can come to the altar and not share his or her God-given resources with the poor.

And so the Gospel drives us on to consider the plight of the hungry and to act to relieve their hunger. All too often, however, we look upon such massive famines as occur in Bangladesh, Kampuchea, or Somalia as being the only instances where hunger exists. These catastrophes are simply the most vivid expressions of hunger. But even without these monumental tragedies, hunger, the silent killer, destroys fifteen million human beings a year. Those who do not die are stunted physically and mentally. They are the ones not helped nor even reached by emergency food aid.

It is to understand the deeper reasons why these people are hungry that hunger task forces have been set up at the parish, diocesan, and national levels. Their role is to study the problem and to recommend appropriate actions. I commend to your attention the great ministry being carried out in this area by the Hunger Task Force of this diocese under the inspired leadership of Mrs. Virginia Meyer Smith. This task force, in common with others in the network, is studying the Report of the Presidential Commission on World Hunger and the Report of the Brandt Commission. These authoritative documents contain various suggestions to help solve the problem. It is one of the goals of the Diocesan Hunger Task Force to help people understand these issues so that they may act constructively to solve them.

Some people object to the fact that this approach is controversial. Controversial? Of course it is controversial. True justice is always controversial. The Gospel is controversial. Would Jesus have been crucified if he had not been controversial? The only ways I know of to avoid controversy are, one, to say nothing, two, to do nothing, three, to be nothing. I am sure that Hell is full of non-controversial people.

This, then, is where we find ourselves. We cannot sit back in our pews and think that we are good Christians by simply being there. The Church is not a crutch but a support for ministry. Not a place "for solace only" but for strength also. Not "for pardon only" but for renewal also. We cannot ignore the cry of the hungry. The goad of the Gospel drives us on.

RE-16

The Good Shepherd Mission to Area Colleges began in February of 1979 under the direction of Fr David Stokes. Begun to establish a link between the Episcopal Church and the colleges of the Main Line Area, it sought to concentrate upon three areas of collegiate ministries: first, providing an academic forum within the context of Christian worship, second, to meet some of the liturgical needs of the student community, and third, to provide a presence of Christian witness on secular college campuses.

The first area was met with the establishing of bi-monthly evensongs, with a guest speaker, followed by dinner and discussion. The first series was concerned with Christian discipleship, while the second sought to explore the relation between Christianity and art. Beginning with small numbers, the congregation grew to average about thirty-five students. The fall of 1980 will see the series "Christ and Science" and the second semester will concern itself with aspects of the Apostles' Creed.

Second is the area of worship. Beside offering the regular services at Good Shepherd, which have been well attended — especially the Sunday Mass — compline was begun, one night a week. The popularity of this service has resulted in making it three times a week, alternating between the Haverford and Bryn Mawr campuses. Also, Fr Stokes has provided various masses throughout each semester in conjunction with examination periods. In turn, he has taken part, Friday evenings, with the Bryn Mawr-Haverford Christian fellowship, meeting with their co-ordinators weekly as well as conducting mass for them on their retreats.

Third, Christian presence has meant being available for students. This has been done not only through the classical quiet day, offered once a semester, but also by Fr Stokes dining with students on the various campuses, weekly, as well as attending Quaker meeting. Also, Good Shepherd, beside providing social functions for the students, has sought to include them in parish life. A few church members have offered brunch for students on a semi-regular basis after the Sunday services.

The number of students involved in all these activities fluctuate monthly but there are a core of some forty students who consider themselves part of the Episcopal family at Good Shepherd. It is to be hoped with the grace of God this core will grow.

ECM-PA

The Pennsylvania Chapter of the Evangelical and Catholic Mission works and prays towards four ends:

1) to recall the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion to the Evangelical Faith and Catholic Order as revealed in Scripture, maintained by Tradition, and received by the Anglican Communion.

2) to help the clergy, religious, and lay people of the Diocese in efforts to maintain the ordained Apostolic Ministry in its integrity as traditionally received by the Catholic Church through the continued affirmation of the male priesthood as the unbroken practice of the Church in history.

3) to maintain the standards of the New Testament and the universal Christian Tradition in matters of behavior and morality.

4) to affirm the teaching and practice of Evangelical and Catholic Spirituality which has always been characteristic of authentic Anglicanism.

In the fall of 1979, ECM-PA sponsored a highly successful Conference on the theme "Can These Bones Live?", with a key-note sermon by the Rt Rev'd Robert E. Terwilliger, Ph.D., D.D., Bishop Suffragan of Dallas, at a Solemn Evensong at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, followed the next day by addresses at All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, by Bp. Terwilliger and Mr. Leslie Fairfield, Ph.D., Professor of Church History at Trinity School for Ministry, Ambridge, PA.

Under the leadership of the Rev'd Harry E. Krauss, III, then Associate Rector of All Saints', Wynnewood, members of the chapter met on several other occasions in 1979 to plan for an increasing apostolate to and in this Diocese. An occasional newsletter, the EVANGELICAL AND CATHOLIC CLARION began publication, with the Rev'd John G. Moser, Curate of Good Shepherd, Rosemont, as Editor. Sr Julia Mary of the All Saints Sisters of the Poor manned a booth on our behalf at Diocesan Convention and served as secretary at our monthly meetings.

During the first half of 1980, the Rev'd Mr Krauss, our Convenor, was elected third Rector of All Saints', Wynnewood, and the Rector of Good Shepherd, Rosemont, the Rev'd Andrew C. Mead, continued to function as Treasurer. Committees were active in preparing for the 1980 Diocesan Convention and in developing materials in the area of clergy deployment. A Quiet Day was held on May 24th and plans for the fall semester laid.

COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES & PENSIONS

This year, as usual, there are several resolutions presented for the consideration of Convention. Also, as usual, there are a number of comments we wish to add on the subject of the resolutions and other areas charged to the Commission. Broadly, these are in four categories; namely, salaries, perquisites and allowances, employee benefits, and organizational areas.

Salaries

First of all, with respect to salary opportunity, we propose in item I of R-1 to increase the ranges for clergy salaries by 9%, effective for 1981.

The 9% figure was picked mainly because of the "voluntary" guidelines still in effect, although these now appear to be honored more in the breach than the observance, and may well be abandoned by 1981. The Commission considered 10% but felt that it would be more appropriate to stay within the 7.5%-9.5% second year standard still in effect.

In any case the changes in ranges are modest. In fact, since the ranges were adopted in 1975 (for the year 1976) changes have not kept up with changes in other sectors. Actual changes were:

1976 None

1977 10% in minimums (around 3%-4% in midpoints, none in maximum).

1978 7% in minimums (around 3-4% in midpoints, none in maximum).

1979 8.5% in minimum, midpoint and maximums.

Thus, changes in the minimum have been in the order of 40%, whereas salaries in the private sector have increased approximately 50% in this period. The midpoints, however, have increased only about 25% — half the change in the private sector — and the maximums have increased even less.

This brings up an important factor which we plan to consider more closely in the coming year, and for which we may ask for an expression from the convention next year, the question "What should the external comparative relationships be?" Should there be any external comparisons at all, and if so should they be other dioceses, other churches, universities or other non-profit organizations, governmental agencies (city, state, federal) or private sector organizations? Or, should there be some combination thereof?

The current sense of the Commission is that non-profit companies might be a good benchmark for reference purposes. Preliminary analyses indicate that using available data, Grade C is probably highly competitive with such organizations in range midpoints including allowances, Grade D is probably about average in this comparison, Grade E range midpoint (including allowances) is about the 25th percentile of practice, and Grade F is slightly below this level (even including allowances). Thus, our structure is "flat," becoming progressively less competitive as job content increases.

Secondly, with respect to actual salaries, in item IIA of Resolution R1 the Commission recommends reaffirmation of the actions of previous conventions, of the policy that salaries should be related to the range midpoint rather than the canonically required minimum. The whole process adopted in 1975 requires this, and in fact the salaries of competent individuals with reasonable tenure should be at or above the midpoint — not near the minimum as is too often the case at the present time.

In fact, if we were to adopt the predominant private sector practice of 50% ranges (with a minimum 80% of range midpoint instead of our present 75%), 38% of the individuals in Grade C and 15% of those in Grade D would be below the minimum! Also, in any case, only 24% of those in Grade C and 38% of those in D are receiving salaries near or above the midpoint of the range — whereas after five years under the current policies most individuals should be at or above the range midpoint, particularly in a relatively "flat" structure like the one in effect. (Most in E and F are in fact above the range midpoints — but, as noted, these ranges are quite low in any private sector comparison, even for non-profit organizations.)

To help with this problem, the Commission is thinking of issuing guidelines, for salary increases as related to performance and position in range. For example, an individual whose salary is near the minimum and whose performance is "good" should be considered for an increase of 10% to 12% if the proposed range change is adopted — and a "superior" individual in this position in the range should receive an increase of 13% to 15%.

With respect to salaries, it is becoming increasingly clear that the whole budgeting process of most parishes is part of the problem. By the time the budgets are developed, too often there is no room for even a modest increase for the clergy, and thus we are back to the focus on canonical minimums. This is particularly true for those parishes that receive subsidies from COAC — it seems clear to us that a 2.2% increase in last year's subsidy also mandates inadequate salary increases; in fact, a 9% increase in ranges probably indicates problems of even attaining the minimums!

We have had some conversations with Bishop Mosely on this point and plan to attempt more constructive action during the coming year in this area.

Perquisites and Allowances

Thirdly, in item IIB of R1 and in R8 we propose further emphasis on appropriate allowances for housing, utilities, and travel expenses. In the past the policy was to specify a minimum housing allowance for situations in which housing was not furnished. It was felt that this placed undue emphasis on minimums, and that the true minimum allowance really should be developed on an individual basis, i.e., what is appropriate for the particular situation. Thus, again we propose convention reaffirm the resolution of previous conventions which requires an allowance for "adequate and satisfactory" housing, with utilities. In this area it should not be forgotten that there are special tax benefits from allowances which are paid, and therefore such allowances should be structured with this point in mind.

In the area of travel, it is the sense of the Commission that too often a "car allowance" is given in lieu of all expenses; thus we feel that congregations should be reminded that often — particularly today — it is desirable that travel on parish or professional business be on public transportation, as outlined in R8. In addition, for those parishes which reimburse on a mileage basis, Resolution R8 establishes that the standard should be the rate established by the IRS for reimbursement that doesn't need to be substantiated by actual expense records. For many years this rate was 15¢ per mile, far above the actual car expense for most, but in recent years the IRS rate has lagged actual changes in costs and become more restrictive — is now more of a minimum. Early in 1980 it was changed from 18.5¢ to 20¢, and we expect further changes in the near future, and the IRS level at least should be provided.

Finally, in this area we are concerned about the other areas of expense required in a thoughtful professional ministry, and are considering guidelines which can be made available to the vestries for reference in specific situations.

Employee Benefit Plans

Fourthly, in the area of employee benefits, last year's convention instructed the Commission to study the area of dental care plans and to report back. We have done this and concluded that this is not the year to propose introduction of a dental plan. It is our sense that the subject should be considered again next year, and we plan to review not only the dental plan issue but also the other employee benefit plans, particularly life insurance. This benefit is currently a flat $20,000, which is much less of value than when the plan was first adopted, due to inflation. As many of you know, the Church Pension Fund provides a superior survivor's pension, but in times of high inflation such pensions also tend to lag behind inflation and thus be seriously diluted in value.

Parish Assessment

Finally, item III of RI proposes the same parish assessment total as in the past few years. All should understand that the current rate of disbursements by the Commission is at a rate greater than this, and we expect aid in all sectors of our jurisdiction to increase noticeably in the near future, partly because of the expansion of the canons permitting aid to displaced clergy.

Thus, next year we probably will propose an increase in the assessment, although we hope that there will still be sufficient reserve to allow the increase to be modest. And, in any case, the assessment is likely to be much less than it was in the years before the formation of COAC.

With respect to aid to the parishes, and to displaced clergy, we are developing guidelines which we hope to issue to the parishes for their information and reference so that all will be better advised. In this area, we seem to be heading for issuance of a "policy manual"; in our report to Council the subject was raised of our actions which seem to have expanded our areas of concern considerably in recent years — particularly since 1975 — and these received the endorsement of Council.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN, DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

ANNUAL MEETING May 14, 1980

The 196th Annual Meeting and luncheon of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held Wednesday, May 14, 1980 at the Penn Mutual Tower, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania following the United Thank Offering service held at St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. William H. Yarrington, presided. Miss Rosamond Cross introduced the guests at the head table, including the Reverend and Mrs. Lyman C. Ogilby, the Rt. Reverend and Mrs. J. Brooke Mosley, the Rt. Reverend Elliott L. Sorge, the Episcopal Churchwomen officers and the ECW Board nominees. Miss Cross expressed a special "thank you" to the Reverend Roy Hendricks, Rector of St. Stephen's Church.

MINUTES: The motion by Mrs. David Sheldon to dispense with the reading of the minutes, carried.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Mrs. Edward K. Cooper, Treasurer, presented the Annual Financial Report. Mrs. Cooper expressed a "thank you" to all who had helped her by turning in more concise Parish Reports which made her job much easier the past year. There was a special "thank you" for Mrs. Grigger, the outgoing Assistant Treasurer.

Mrs. Copper stated that the Food Crisis Fund should be a main priority when making Parish Budgets. The motion by Mrs. Copper to accept the report carried.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented their report. The following candidates were presented:

For three-year terms;	Mrs. H. Hansell Ritter	President
	Mrs. Herbert Barron	Secretary
	Mrs. Elizabeth Bedinger	Assistant Treasurer
	Mrs. G. Selden Pitt	U.T.O. Custodian
	Mrs. Charles Kenkelen	Nominating Committee
	Mrs. Marcellus Reddick	Nominating Committee
	Mrs. William H. Yarrington	Nominating Committee

There being no further nominations from the floor, the Secretary was instructed to cast a unanimous vote for the ballot. The Rt. Reverend Lyman C. Ogilby conducted the service of installation of the newly elected slate.

VENTURE IN MISSION: Mrs. Robert W. Wigton of the Venture in Mission Committee presented an up-date of the Venture in Mission program by stating that 65% of the Diocesan goal had been met and dispursements are already being made.

ANNUAL REPORTS: Mrs. Yarrington presented her Annual Report by introducing the Department Heads, so a familiar face could be recalled to mind when the reports are read carefully at home. The President also expressed heartfelt "thank yous" to the ECW Executive Board, the Bishop's Staff and all for the rewarding three years of her term.

Mrs. Yarrington then presented the new President, Mrs. Ritter, with the Gavel, a Bible and the silver Cross, presented to the ECW Presidents by Mary Siter Owen. Mrs. Ritter asked all for continued support for herself and the ECW in the years ahead. The new President then paid tribute to Mrs. Yarrington. Bishop Ogilby expressed gratitude to the Women in the total ECW and of having the opportunity to work with Mrs. Yarrington. The Bishop stated he is looking forward to the term of Mrs. Ritter. After closing Prayers by the Bishop, Mrs. Ritter adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mrs. William H. Yarrington

May 14, 1980

It has been a blessed year of learning and sharing as we have taken another step toward a true relationship of unity, affirmation and involvement.

As the past year is noted, special attention must be paid to the reports of individual Executive Committee and Board members. This remarkable, energetic group of women took to heart the promise they made to you when they were elected, and have continually presented a variety of programs to help you manifest your gifts of ministry. They have solemnly carried out their responsibilities, sometimes despite illness or duress, but always with joy. Study their accounts and know that we are blessed.

As our year began, plans were being made to move diocesan temporary offices from Suite 1600 to 2616 in the IVB Building. The design for the new offices was executed by a group of us known as the "Uncramp Committee", since the move would achieve the added space needed by everyone. In addition to the welcome addition square footage, we were reminded that we are now ten floors nearer God!

The actual move to suite 2616 took place while we were in Denver leading a delegation to the Triennial Meeting, which was convened concurrently with General Convention. The time there was an unforgetable experience in the lives of all five of us. We worked together, laughed together, were sad and happy together as we were guided through mountain top and valley experiences bearing the title "Walking In The Light."

We traveled to Denver with a special banner made by women in this diocese to be hung in the Triennial meeting hall for all to see, with bright posters telling about our mission project in Brazil. We took E.C.W. personalized pencils to distribute and a wonderful fold-out display panel showing all facets of our E.C.W. work in his diocese. From the time we returned, you began inviting us to come to your parish and tell you about Triennial to which you had sent us. We felt truly blessed.

While Diocesan E.C.W. programs continued to draw good attendance, we had the pleasure of being involved in many varied activities in the Diocese. Serving on Church House staff was a memorable experience, and gave heartening support to our work. Learning and growth abounded as we atttended SUWERS meetings to hear about secular and ecumenical works, and participated in Diocesan Council.

Serving on the Venture Executive Committee has meant so much, as has the experience of serving on the Philadelphia Theological Institute Board of Directors, Diocesan Family Life Committee, The Church Training and Deaconess House Board, The Diocesan Committee for World Relief and The Interior Design Committee for 2616 and the eventual permanent offices on Rittenhouse Square. We shall continue as a member of some of these groups, knowing we are blessed.

We have also been active in Province III E.C.W., and at present will continue chairing the committee to rewrite the Constitution and By-Laws of that organization.

Through the year, members of our Executive Board enjoyed hearing several thoughtful, talented women tell about their work. Mrs. Betty Mosley told about Voyage House, and Mrs. Mary McCall explained "Aid for Girls of Bucks County, Inc.". We were touched by Lois Ogilby's story of her work with Southeast Asian Refugees, and learned about Diocesan Altar Guild from the president, Mrs. Josephine Rockett. They came to our meetings with willing hearts, and we were blessed to have them.

In February, representatives from Province III E.C.W. and plenary, The National Task Force on the Ministry of Women and The Episcopal Women's Caucus met together in our Diocesan offices to plan a cooperatively sponsored conference for women.

Now scheduled for October 16, 17, and 18 in Pittsburgh, the conference purpose is — "To come together in Christ to identify, affirm and celebrate our ministries to become aware of the options for ministry and to be affirmed as women." We pray for its success.

Again this year, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller led members of the Executive Board through an intensive day of evaluation and planning. This meeting, which took place at Glen Foerde in March, initiated plans for two Program Planning Days. One was held at Krisheim on April 18, and the other took place at All Saints, Torresdale on April 29.

This now brings to a close an incredibly short three year term. It has gone quickly because of you, and I thank God for each and every one of you. You are indeed a very special lot! You are doing such wonderful works with such love and such care, it leaves no doubt that you have an irresistable force in our Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you for all that you are! We are indeed blessed!

We welcome Nancy Ritter as she begins her term as our president. We wish her God bless and God speed and may God bless you all for always.

Faithfully submitted,

M. ELOISE YARRINGTON

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN MINISTRIES

Mrs. Kenneth O. Grannum — May 14, 1980

It was with great pride and pleasure that I accepted the nomination to serve as one of your five Delegates to Triennial last September. It was a wonderful experience. Serving as a teller throughout the meeting gave me a true sense of belonging. Thank you for sending me!

On May 1, 1980 the Departments of Diocesan Ministries and Missions of The Episcopal Church Women, Diocese of Pennsylvania, met at the Seamen's Church Institute and had a very inspiring morning.

Beginning with the Holy Eucharist, The Very Reverend Robert H. Peoples was celebrant, assisted by The Reverend Roger Pickering. Following the Eucharist, Dean Peoples showed some beautiful slides, describing in detail the interesting work of the Seamen's Institute. This was followed by a detailed account of the expanding work of All Soul's Church For The Deaf, by Father Pickering. The morning's session was very rewarding and informative. A healthy discussion followed, after which we lunched together.

The Department of Diocesan Ministries will endeavor always to bring to our Diocesan family information relative to the different Ministries in our Diocese. Such information, we are sure will encourage your understanding, involvement, and generous support.

God bless you all, and you will be hearing from us periodically.

Let me also take this opportunity to thank my good Committee, who work so hard towards the growth and usefulness of The Department of Diocesan Ministries.

LAY MINISTRY COMMITTEE

Mrs. G. Graham Lancaster, Jr. — May 14, 1980

This committee began its work only last year. A poll of E.C.W. Presidents and Key Women gave the committee three areas into which they have continued to direct their efforts. These areas are first, the "feeling of a lack of support from other women for what I am doing"; second, "the acceptance of the limitations of my life"; and third, "the organizing of time and priorities".

MS. GULLIVER — DAYS OF SHARING were the first response to these concerns. After 4 sharing days, we know that the women of this diocese do support each other and show their caring by sharing.

Because Lay Ministry involves many, many areas of our life together, the chairman of this committee represented the Episcopal Church Women on the Long Range Planning Group for the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The report of the group is presently in Diocesan Council committee. But some portions of it are for each of us here and now. To begin with, each group within E.C.W. can certainly share its programming and events with others. If you are at a loss as to the means just call the E.C.W. office, for both the E.C.W. Board and all of its committees will help find a way. We can each support other women whether in clusters of parishes or in Deaneries or in the Diocese by making an extra effort to share.

A third piece of committee activity is in the planning phases; an event for youth and their parents. With the Reverend Mary Adebonejo, both parents of teenagers and young people have been polled asking for their wishes, concerns, and ideas. Their input is providing the elements to be developed into a workshop for Fall. Parents of teenagers need lots of support and we need to find ways to show we care.

Program Planning Days provided new polls of the people attending. These results will most certainly be part of planning for another year. Who knows — Ms. Gulliver may no longer be flat on her back.

AMY S. LANCASTER, Chairman

PRAYER & WORSHIP

Davette Turk — May 14, 1980

A great deal of work done by the Department of Prayer and Worship during the past year was inspired by the valuable experience of Triennial. While attending as a delegate, we were continually involved in worship experiences of great value spiritually, and returned home filled with awe at the magnitude of all we wished to share in this diocese.

Many people with different enthusiasms or specialties are working to present programs. The department vice president and her husband, The Rev. Richard Turk, are specialists in the theology of prayer. Working closely with them is Donald Barnhouse, Professor at Eastern College.

Helen White specializes in Bible study, and relates it to prayer as the other side of the same "coin". Kay Stretton, a musician, works with the group in the area of music, song and liturgical dance as related to worship. Tina Wicks and her husband, Lin Wicks, are interested in family prayer. Linda Rogers stresses a healing ministry, while Jeanie Cook and LaRue Hepburn are interested in prayer in the liturgy. Richard Kirby's enthusiasm is spirituality and the contemplative life.

Each of these people brings to the committee a strong desire to minister to the Church by urging and promoting prayer as the practice of the presence of God, realizing that we are able to teach only as the willing mouths and hands of the Holy Spirit.

On November 9th, a Day of Prayer at Trinity Memorial Church, Philadelphia, was led by various members with Donald Barnhouse giving the keynote address. The next program was a Lenten series at St. Peter's Church, Glenside consisting of six Sunday morning adult classes on prayer. This program is available as a pilot program for other parishes within the Diocese.

An evening Lenten program was presented March 12th, at Chelten Methodist Church, and another on April 17th at Roslyn Presbyterian Church. Two important Prayer Programs were held in April. The evening of April 25th was held at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill and the day of April 26th found us at St. Asaph's Church, Bala-Cynwyd.

Future projects are two Communion Breakfasts on May 10th and June 6th. We are also planning a retreat for the Committee on June 21st, and a Family conference on November 29th, at Eastern College, St. David's.

The Committee has produced several pamphlets and flyers, with the help of Sally Groton, a competent artist who gladly illustrates our material.

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Mrs. J. Otis Smith — May 14, 1980

Effective communication is the key to good relationships. The Department of Promotion provides publicity for Diocesan events sponsored by Episcopal Churchwomen. Coverage of successful programs can help all groups with their planning, thus, extending our Christian Ministry.

This Department is responsible for supervising the Lea Hill Scholarship Fund, created in 1953 in memory of Mr. John E. Hill. This fund is available to assist women who wish to enter specialized training or graduate work in Christian Education or human welfare services. We are asking the Episcopal Churchwomen to help publicize this excellent scholarhsip opportunity and encourage women to participate in the program. This offers us the opportunity to reaffirm our commitment to extend the spiritual growth of women, and further their professional development.

Lea Hill Scholarship grants totaled $2,600 for the 1979-1980 academic year. Two of the women receiving scholarships have completed requirements for graduation this Spring. We share with you statements taken from letters recently received.:

> Miss Rosemary A. Herrick, Easton, Pa. $1,000 — Temple University Master's Program in Community Psychology — Graduate May 1, 1980
> "I will be graduating in May, 1980 and look forward to finding a productive position in the helping professions." I wish to thank you all for this help. I would not have been able to finish this year without this help."

> Mrs. Delores H. Mehring, Lehigh University — $1,000 — Master's Degree in Community Counseling
> "I will be awarded the degree on June 1. I owe so much to your assistance. I know that your work is done in the name of Christ and hope to carry out to my fullest potential more work in His Name."

Mrs. Helen R. Ogburn, University of Pennsylvania, received $600 toward a Doctoral Program in Reading.

Applications have been received for 1980-1981 grants.

Representing YOU at Triennial in Denver, Colorado was a rewarding experience which has been shared in meetings with several groups of Episcopal Churchwomen.

We appreciate the support given the Department by our President M. Elouise Yarrington, Janette Pierce, News Editor of the "Episcopalian", Churchwomen of the Diocese and our Committee.

In a troubled world, working with you makes it a happy place to be.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Miss Elizabeth Beath — May 14, 1980

It has been a most stimulating experience to be a part of the Executive Board of the ECW of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The loving cheerful support of all the Board members has been very beautiful! Thank you for this rare opportunity!

After the past three years I still think that the United Thank Offering with its underlying prayer aspect is the most thrilling and valuable feature of the life in our Church. I am truly grateful that each year more and more families are participating in this 90 year old offering, begun by women. The secret of the offering is that once you have been a participant you will always want to be one.

This has been a very full year for the U.T.O., as Diocesan Custodian, I was one of the 5 Pennsylvania delegates to the National Triennial Meeting in September in Denver. The theme was "Walking in the Light". As usual much time was alotted to the U.T.O.: consideration of and making grants, workshops for custodians and an exchange of ideas for interpreting the offering. This year in honor of the 90th Anniversary there was a Birthday Parade and Party, a skit written and produced by the National U.T.O. Committee and the introduction of Frances Young's history of the U.T.O., "Thanksgiving Unites". The last paragraph in this book will provide you with some new ideas of the real meaning and value of the U.T.O.

> William Temple in his "Readings in St. John's Gospel" writes, "It is probable that in most of us the spiritual life is impoverished and stunted because we give so little place to gratitude. It is more important to thank God for blessings received than to pray for them beforehand." That is why so many of us want to say Alleluia for the United Thank Offering! And may the next century be even better!

At home in the Diocese we had our usual U.T.O. get togethers and supermarkets. The Spring Material Market was the last one. After our Spring Ingathering, U.T.O. supplies will be ordered by parishes directly from the Seabury Service Center. Watch for instructions! We feel sure that this will work out well.

We had our Fall Ingathering at Old Christ Church. The Rev. Victoria Wells, Assistant Rector at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Duxbury, Massachusetts was our speaker. It was such a warm delightful afternoon that the Bishops and Victoria stood out in the churchyard to greet people. The reception given by the parishioners of Old Christ Church was a very happy way to end such a beautiful day.

The Spring Ingathering at St. Stephen's Church has taken us to a new site, a center of spiritual healing. We are so glad that Bishop Sorge at long last was able to come to us as our speaker. His experiences in the Mission field in Brazil and at the Episcopal Church Center in New York have given him a fine understanding of the U.T.O. as a great missionary offering.

My three years as your Custodian has been a very busy and happy time for me. I appreciate the loving support of the women of the Diocese and I look forward to a great future for the U.T.O. in Pennsylvania.

I should like to express my gratitude to those who have helped the U.T.O. in the past three years, including our Bishops, Deans, Clergy, Crucifers, Organists, Altar Guilds, Speakers, "815" Staff, Staff of the "Episcopalian", and Church House Staff, and especially Kathy Federico. The Diocesan U.T.O. Committee, Parish Custodians, and all participants in the United Thank Offering, in fact, practically everyone in the Diocese — Thank you all!

God Bless you all as you continue His wonderful work with Alice Pitt.

Thankfully and Respectfully,

BETTY BEATH
United Thank Offering Custodian

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD SERVICES

Mrs. William Perry May 14, 1980

Again this year, as before, the World Services and your talents have expanded their services to various areas and agencies.

We are providing help to more people in need than ever before. We have not refused nor turned away any one who needs the kind of help that World Services provide.

Each year in the Spring we hold our annual Emporium, where Churchwomen receive supplies to knit, crochet, and sew for Layette Sunday and World Services.

This year we had as our speaker, Mrs. George Jeitles (Community Services for Federal Hospitals). Mrs. Jeitles told the women present where the items that we donate to the Red Cross are distributed.

It has become impossible to give a total count of all the garments so lovingly made by so many of our Churchwomen. Listed are some of the garments returned to us from the Churchwomen throughout our Diocese: Girls-dresses, pajamas, sweaters, hats, gloves, scarves, blouses. Boys-pants, pajamas, sweaters, caps, gloves, scarves. Ladies' nightgowns and dresses (expressly large sizes). Sweaters, afghans, lap robes, foot socks, watch caps. For the first time this year we rolled bandages for C.R.O.P.

These items were distributed to:

C.R.O.P.
Center for Human Services (ECS)
Stephen Smith Home
Red Cross
Veterans' Hospital
St. Christopher's (Indian Mission)

Our cash contributions were made to:

$200.00	Presiding Bishop's Fund (Earmarked for Cambodia)
40.00	Red Cross (Veterans' Hospital for Easter candy)
35.00	For milk for our year for children (U.N.I.C.E.F.)

Layette Sunday which is held each year on the Sunday before Thanksgiving has, we believe, supplied more variety of baby clothes to agencies than you can imagine.

Unbelievable again is the number of items received this year from an increased number of parishes. All hand made, there were sacques, gowns, botties, kimonos, blankets, tummy binders, knitted afghans, (sweaters, hats, bootie sets), crib sheets.

Donated were stretch suits, socks, diapers, powder, oil, pins and a variety of other items. All these items were distributed to:

The Salvation Army (Booth Memorial Hospital)
Center for Human Services (ECS)
Teen-Aid Clinic (University of Pennsylvania)
C.R.O.P.

Cash contributions received was donated to:

$100.00 To C.R.O.P. for baby blankets
46.00 Teen-Aid Clinic (University of Pennsylvania)

The balance was used to purchase flannel for tummy binders for C.R.O.P.

To each of you who has shared in this department's success — thank you and may Peace and Love be with you.

Gratefully submitted,

CONSTANCE PERRY

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

Miss Elizabeth Jenks May 14, 1980

The Order of the Daughters of the King is a lay order for women in the Episcopal Church. In the Diocese of Pennsylvania, there are six active parish chapters and eight members-at-large.

Members take vows of Prayer and Service and help to strengthen the spiritual life of their parishes. Our primary purpose is Evangelism, especially among women and girls.

The 87th Diocesan Assembly was held on Saturday, May 3, 1980 — St. Timothy's Roxborough, our newest chapter. The day began at 11 A.M. with a Holy Eucharist followed by luncheon and a business meeting.

Organized on the parish, diocesan, provincial and national level, the Triennial Convention of Daughters of the King was held in Denver the week preceding General Convention.

A self-denial offering received nationally each year pays the salary and living expenses of a missionary in Brazil, Elizabeth Daniel, who grew up in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Following convention, a group of twelve from this Diocese met with her for lunch. This year a trip to Brazil is being sponsored cooperatively with Diocesan Episcopal Churchwomen.

For any further information on becoming a member or organizing a parish chapter, please contact the Diocesan President.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Mrs. Joseph Smith May 14, 1980

Since the 1979 National G.F.S. meeting, our program though full and varied, has moved smoothly through the year.

Junior Day, 1979 was held on April 28, 1979 at St.James Church, Perkiomen — the home parish of our National G.F.S. President, Adele Ray. Memberss of the St. James Branch were gracious hostesses, making everyone feel comfortable and welcome. The service was a fulfilling one with music supplied by the G.F.S. choir and the congregation. The guitar accompaniment made our "joyful sound unto the Lord" a truly uplifting experience. The offering was divided between St. John's Settlement House, and Larry and Jane Golan, medical missionaries to Bangladesh. After lunch, we viewed the girls' handicrafts, and then each branch presented its contribution to the afternoon's entertainment. Trophies, prizes and ribbons were awarded to the girls for their handcrafts and special projects; and to the branches for their stunts, dances and songs.

On May 23, our G.F.S. was responsible for the Gingerbread Booth at the Episcopal Hospital May Fete. This is an annual affair, and we have manned the booth for many years.

Memorial Day Weekend is the traditional weekend to begin preparing our Holiday House in Cape May for summer season. This year was no exception. Volunteers, many of them from Trinity Church, Oxford, went to Cape May at their own expense to scrub, paint, polish and do whatever was necessary to help put the house in order. We are pleased that so many members are so willing to give such help.

Sponsors' Weekend was the weekend of June 29-July 1. This affair is the traditional official opening of Holiday House. The weekend included a reception on Friday evening, a meeting on Saturday morning, a banquet on Saturday evening. The entertainment after the banquet was provided by a Sweet Adeline Quartet. On Sunday, we attended a church service. We had Sunday dinner together at one o'clock so that those of us who were leaving could head for home before heavy traffic began. Our Sponsors are loyal G.F.S. members, and are generous in their contributions of time, love and money to Holiday House.

So many girls wanted to attend Youth Week at Holiday House, that we found it necessary to hold two Youth Weeks. The program, typically G.F.S. evolved around worship, service, study and recreation. The theme was Christmas in July. The girls made tree ornaments, and gifts. Each day included a service in our chapel, a trip to the beach, some service, and evening entertainment and/or activities. Culminating activities at the end of the week included Christmas dinner, a visit by Santa Claus, candlelight caroling, and the crowning of Miss Holiday House.

We began our Fall season with a Leadership Training Day at Trinity Church, Oxford. New ideas for worship were presented by Doris and Ray Baker, our Worship Chairman and Chaplain. Judy Miller, our Junior Chairman presented the crafts for Juniors — patchwork quilting, macrame and genuis kits. Estella Carroll, our Christian Social Relations Chairman, made assignments to Brancches for service projects for Homes and Hospitals for the various holidays during the year. She also announced the dates for contributions for Seamens' Church Institute and Episcopal Community Services. Joan Marshall, our Senior Chairman, gave ideas for recreation, and discussed plans for a diocesan activity for Seniors to be held in the Spring.

G.F.S. Day of Prayer Around the World was observed by the individual branches at their meetings. Their offerings were sent to our Diocesan treasurer, so that all the contributions could be sent to the proper place at one time.

Our regular Executive Committee and Diocesan Council meetings were held in October, January, and May. In November, our Diocesan Sponsors held a card party for the benefit of Holiday House.

Our Selection Committee met in December to choose a girl to represent our Diocese at the meeting of G.F.S., U.S.A. in April, 1980, to meet with other girls from other dioceses to be considered for the Junior delegate to represent the United States at World Council in Ireland in 1981.

January brought G.F.S. Week. Many branches held Admission Services and/or special activities to publicize The Girls' Friendly Society.

On Senior/Sponsor Day, March 22, 1980, we were guests of our newest branch at Holy Trinity Church, West Chester. The day included a mission service, lunch, a discussion period, a Handbell concert by the Holy Trinity Branch, and songs led by the senior girls of the G.F.S. Diocese. Our offering from the service was used for contributions to All Saints School Bontok in The Republic of The Phillipines; to The Church Periodical Club to be used toward the publishing of the magazine "Hi", a magazine for teenagers in Ireland; and to Susan and John Harvard, Missionaries in South America under the SAMS Program.

Our Annual Reports indicate the following statistics:

Honorary Associates:	7
Active Associates:	50
Sponsors (Organized):	128
Sponsors (Individual):	65
Seniors:	58
Juniors:	223
Total:	531

AD HOC TASK FORCE ON THE MINISTRIES OF WOMEN

Mrs. William Clark, Sr. May 14, 1980

The first National Conference on Women's Ministries met in St. Louis, Missouri on January 20-22, 1977. Almost every state of the union was represented. There were eighteen (18) women from the Diocese of Penna., including representation from the Diocesan E.C.W. The conference was one of love and sharing and focused on both the ordained and lay woman, their gifts and talents and the complexities of their ministries. There were workshops on Women in the Parish Ministry, Frustrations of the Lay and Ordained Woman, Stewardship, Human Sexuality, World Hunger, Self Affirmation and Mother-Daughter (love-hate relationships).

The second National Conference on Women's Ministries was held in Cleveland, Ohio on November 2-4, 1978. It was a conference on reaffirmation of ministries through skills identification, workshops, theological reflection and worship. Women came from all over the United States to share their visions and hopes, their plans of future ventures in the life of the church and their places in those plans.

Both of the above conferences were sponsored by the National Task Force on Women located in New York City. The ad hoc Task Force has three (3) representatives on this body: Mesdames Jan Pierce, Jan Duncan and Hope Sellers.

The ad hoc Task Force on Women's Ministries, Diocese of Pennsylvania, is an unofficial and unstructured group which came into existence after St. Louis and because of that conference. It is composed of the eighteen (18) Diocesan representatives to the National Conferences and other women of varied backgrounds and economic levels who felt the need to become a group. Our purpose is to come together in Christ to identify, support, affirm and promote lay and ordained women in the Diocese. We rely on the structured E.C.W. body for guidance and support. The meetings are held monthly (except July and August) in the members' parishes, homes and the Church House. Some of our membership are E.C.W., a few are E.W.C. (Episcopal Women's Caucus) and several are members of all three ministries. Women who are interested in becoming members should contact the Church House.

Since the inception of the ad hoc Task Force, we have been in dialogue with many informative persons; reviewed different approaches to the problems of every day living; supported related causes; gained insight and depth in new areas and also attempted to span the social and economic gaps in the diversity of our group.

During 1979, we presented a resolution to Diocesan Convention on Women Trapped in Poverty which was endorsed by the E.C.W., Well Women and the Public Issues Committee of E.C.S.; we supported the Nestles Boycott resolution; utilized the talents of the following persons: (1) Dr. Fredrika Harris Thompsett, executive director, Board of Theological Education, and a member of the National E.W.C.; (2) Mr. George Soule, Clergy Deployment Office of the Diocese; and (3) the Reverend Geralyn Wolf, assistant rector, St. Martin-in-the Fields, Chestnut Hill. In addition, we participated in discussions on "Women at the General Convention; the controversial issue of abortions and cults and their de-programming. We held our March, 1980 meeting at Rafters Charities sharing with Flosie Reddick the culmination of her dream, in a beautiful new building, which provides learning and nurtures underpriviledged black children (ages 2-6) in the South-west Philadelphia area.

Unfortunately, we had to abort our Province III Task Force on Women's Conference scheduled during November, 1979 at Pittsburgh, PA. It has been rescheduled for October, 1980 and will include E.C.W. representation on the planning committee. The objective will be to reach the woman who is unaware of her ministry and to enlighten her. Most of the particulars will be disseminated at a later date.

Lord help us perfect our vision — there is always more to be seen.
Tellhard de Chardin

Gratefully submitted,

FRANCES I. CLARK
E.C.W. Representative,
Diocesan ad hoc Task Force on Women's Ministries
